[15th December 1826.]

WHEREAS on the First Day of September in this present Year One thousand eight hundred and twenty six, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, was pleased to make a certain Order in Council, whereby, after reciting that, by the Laws now in force for regulating the Importation of Corn, Oats and Oatmeal might be imported into the United Kingdom, and into the Isle of Man, for Home Consumption, under and subject to the Regulations of the several Statutes in that Case made and provided, whenever the Average Price of Oats (to be ascertained in the Manner therein prescribed) should be at or above the Price of Twenty seven Shillings the Quarter; and Pease might in like Manner be imported whenever the Price should be at or above Fifty three Shillings the Quarter; and further reciting, that by a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the Third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Importation of Corn, it is enacted, that whereas Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour, shall be admissible under the Provisions of an Act passed in the fifty fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to amend the Laws now in force for regulating the Importation of Corn, or under the Provisions of the said Act passed in the Third Year of His present Majesty, there should be levied and paid certain Duties, therein specified, upon all such Foreign Corn, Meal or Flour, when admitted for Home Consumption; and further reciting, that by the Weekly Returns of Purchases and Sales of Corn made by the several Inspectors of Corn Returns in the Cities and Towns of England and Wales, to the Receiver of Corn Returns, it appeared that the Average Price of Oats, and also the Average Price of Pease, at the then present Time, exceeded the before mentioned Prices of Twenty seven Shillings and Fifty three Shillings per Quarter; and further reciting, that some Information which had on that Day been had before His Majesty,

His Majesty, as appeared that the Price of Oats, as well as that of Pease, was still rising, and that the Crop of Oats, and also the Crops of Pease and Beans of the present Year, had failed to a considerable Extent, and that a Deficiency in the Crop of Potatoes was also apprehended in some Parts of the United Kingdom; and that if the Importation for Home Consumption of Oats and Oatmeal, and of Rye, Pease and Beans, were not immediately permitted, there was great Cause to fear that much Distress might ensue to all Classes of His Majesty's Subjects; and further reciting, that under the Acts aforesaid no Foreign Grain of the above Description, whatever might be the respective Average Prices of the same, could be admitted to Entry for Home Consumption till after the Fifteenth Day of November in the present Year, when the next Quarterly Average, by which the Admission of such Grain is regulated, would be made up, according to the Provision of the said Acts; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, did order, and it was thereby accordingly ordered, that Foreign Oats and Oatmeal, Rye, Pease and Beans, whether warehoused or otherwise, should and might from the Date of the said Order in Council, be permitted to be entered in the Ports of the United Kingdom and of the Isle of Man for Home Consumption, provided the Parties making Entry of any such Foreign Oats, Oatmeal, Rye, Pease or Beans, should give Bond, with sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, for the Payment of any Duty, not exceeding in Amount the Duties thereunder mentioned, in case Parliament should authorize the Levy and Receipt thereof: that is to say, Oats, per Quarter, Two Shillings; Oatmeal, per Boll, Two Shillings and Ten Pence; Rye, Pease and Beans, per Quarter, Three Shillings and Six Pence; and His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, did thereby further order, and it was accordingly ordered, that such Permission to enter Oats and Oatmeal, Rye, Pease and Beans, for Home Consumption, on the Conditions aforesaid, should continue in force from the Date thereof until the Expiration of Forty Days, to be reckoned from the Day of the next Meeting of Parliament, unless the Parliament should previously to the Expiration of the said Forty Days make Provision to the contrary; And whereas it is expedient that all Persons obeying or using the said Order in Council, and all Persons who have acted under or in obedience to the same, should be indemnified; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Order in Council shall be and be deemed valid and of due Force in Law; and that all personal Actions and Suits, Indemnities, Informations and all Prosecutions and Proceedings whatsoever, which have been or shall be hereafter prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons, for having advised or issued or carried into Execution the said Order in Council, be, are and shall be discharged and made void by virtue of this Act; and that if any Action or Suit shall be prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons, for or by reason of any Act, Matter or Thing advised, commanded, appointed or done, or forborne to be done, under or in relation to the said Order in Council, be, she or they may plead the General Issue, and give the Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any Action or Suit so to be prosecuted or commenced in England or Ireland shall become bankrupt, or forborne further Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict shall pass against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover his, her or their Double Costs, for which he, she or they shall have the like Remedy as in Cases where the Costs by Law are given to Defendants; and if any such Action or Suit as aforesaid shall be commenced or prosecuted in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Court before which such Action or Suit shall be commenced or prosecuted shall allow to the Defender the Benefit of the Exchange and Indemnity hereby provided, and shall further allow him the Double Costs of Suit in all such Cases as aforesaid.

II. And be it also enacted, That if any Action or Suit hath been already commenced against any Person or Persons, for any such Act, Matter or Thing so advised, commanded, appointed or done, or forborne to be done, it shall and may be lawful for the Defendants or Defendants in such Actions or Suits respectively, in whatever Court in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland such Action or Suit shall have been commenced, to apply to such Court or Courts respectively, to stay all Proceedings therein respectively, by Motion in a summary Way, and such Court or Courts are hereby required to make Order for that Purpose accordingly; and the Court or Courts making such Order shall allow and award to the Defendants or Defendants respectively, Double Costs of Suit, for which they shall respectively have the like Remedy as in Cases where the Costs are by Law given to Defendants or Defendants.

to deter and discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty hereby required or appointed; such Military Officer shall for every such Offence (being thereof convicted before any Two or more of the Justices of the Peace of the County, by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses,) be deemed and taken to be quo facto outlawed, and shall be utterly disabled to have or hold any Military Employment within this Kingdom or in His Majesty's Service; provided the said Conviction be affirmed at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the said County, and a Certificate thereof to be transmitted to the Judge Advocate in London, who is hereby obliged to certify the same to the Commander in Chief and Secretary at War; and in case any Person shall find himself aggrieved, in that such Constable, Tipstaff or Headborough, Chief Officer or Magistrate, (such Chief Officer or Magistrate not being a Justice of the Peace) has quartered or billeted in his House a greater Number of Soldiers than he ought to bear in proportion to his Neighbourhood, and shall complain thereof to One or more Justice of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty where such Soldiers are quartered; or in case such Chief Officer or Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace, then on Complaint made to Two or more Justices of the Peace of such Division, City or Liberty, such Justices respectively shall have and have hereby Power to relieve such Person, by ordering such and so many of the Soldiers to be removed, and quartered upon such other Person or Persons as they shall see Cause, and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive such Soldiers accordingly.

*XIX. And Whereas by an Act passed in Ireland in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intimated An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers and providing Carriages for the Carriage of Soldiers on their March, it was amongst other things enacted and declared, that no Officer, Soldier or Trooper in the Army, nor the Servant of any Officer, nor any Attendant on the Train of Artillery, nor any Yeoman of the Guard of His Majesty, nor any Officer commanding the said Yeoman, nor any Servant of any such Officer, should at any Time thereafter have, receive or be allowed any Quarter in any Part of Ireland, save only during such Time as he or they should be and remain in some Sea-port Town in order to be transported, or during such Time as there should be any Conviction in any Part of Ireland, by reason of which Emergency the Army or any considerable Part thereof should be commanded to march from any Part of Ireland to another, or during such Time or Times as he or they should be on their March as aforesaid: And Whereas the Barracks of Ireland are not at present sufficient to lodge all the Forces upon the Military Establishment: And Whereas it may be necessary to station Part of the Troops in Places where there are not Barracks, or not sufficient Barracks, to hold them: Be it enacted, and it is hereby declared and agreed, That it shall and may be lawful, notwithstanding the said recited Act, to and for the Constables and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of Cities, Towns, Villages and other Places in Ireland, and in their Default or Absence for any One Justice of the Peace inhabiting in or near any such City, Town, Village or Place, and for no others, and such Constables and other Chief Magistrates as aforesaid, or in their Default, such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers and Soldiers in His Majesty's Service in Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, and the Houses of Sellers of Wine by Retail, to be drunk in their own Houses or Places themselves belonging, and all Houses of Persons selling Brandy, Strong Waters, Cider or Metheglin by Retail; and where there shall not be found sufficient Rooms in such Houses, then in such Manner as has been heretofore customary, taking care not to billet less than Two Men in any One House, except only in case of billeting Horse or Ornaments in rooms hereinafter mentioned; nor shall any billeting at any Time be ordered for more than the Number of effective Soldiers present to be quartered, all which Billets, when made out by such Chief Magistrates or Constables, or Justice of the Peace, as the Case may be, shall be delivered into the Hands of the Staff Officer employed, or of the Commanding Officer present; and if any Constable or other Chief Officer or Magistrate as aforesaid shall presume to quarter or billet any such Officer or Soldier in any House not within the Meaning of this Act, without the Consent of the Owner or Occupier thereof, then such Owner or Occupier shall have his or their Remedy in Law against such Magistrate or Officer for the Damage that such Owner or Occupier shall sustain thereby; and such Constable, Chief Officer or Magistrate, being duly convicted of such Offence by indictment, shall be imprisoned for the Space of One Calendar Month; and if any Military Officer shall make upon him to quarter Soldiers otherwise than is limited and allowed by this Act, or shall use or offer any Menace or Compulsion to or upon any Mayor, Constable or other Chief Officer before mentioned, tending to deter or discourage any of them from performing any Part of their Duty hereby required or appointed, or to induce any of them to do any thing contrary to their said Duty, such Military Officer shall for every such Offence, being thereof convicted before any Two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, by Oath of Two credible Witnesses, be deemed and taken to be quo facto outlawed, and shall be utterly disabled to have or hold any Military Employment whatsoever, provided the said Conviction be affirmed at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County, or County of a City or Town, and a Certificate thereof be transmitted to the Secretary at War: and in case any Person shall find himself aggrieved, in that such Constable, Chief Officer or Magistrate, not being a Justice of the Peace, has quartered or billeted in his House a greater Number of Soldiers than he ought to bear in proportion to his Neighbourhood, and shall complain thereof to One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the Division, City or Liberty where such Soldiers are quartered, or in case such Chief Officer or Magistrate shall be a Justice of the Peace, then on Complaint made to Two or more Justices of the Peace of such Division, City or Liberty, such Justice or Justices respectively shall have, and have hereby Power to relieve such Person, by ordering such and so many of the Soldiers to* be removed and quartered upon such other Person or Persons as he or they shall see Cause, and such other Person or Persons shall be obliged to receive such Soldiers accordingly.

L. And as very great Disturbance and Inconvenience arise in the Service from the dispersing and billeting of Soldiers when as a March at a great Distance from the Place or Places where they are meant to be quartered, and contrary to the true Inten[ti]on and Meaning of the said last recited Act, and by reason of which they are placed wide of their intended Route for the next Day's March; be it therefore enacted, That at no Time when Troops are on a March shall any of them be billeted above One Mile from the Place or Places mentioned in the Route.

L.I. And Whereas Soldiers are often billeted and quartered on the March unequally, and to the Prejudice of some of His Majesty's Subjects, by reason that the Places mentioned in the Route are on the Borders of Counties, and that the Keepers of Houses in which Soldiers may be quartered being out of the Parish or Place mentioned in the Route, although in the immediate Vicinity thereof, refuse to receive such Soldiers upon Billets granted by the Constables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs or other Persons of such Places to whom the quartering of Soldiers belongs; For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That in any such Case it shall be lawful for the Constable, Tithingman, Headborough or other Person to whom the quartering of Soldiers in any Place mentioned in any Route as the Border of any County shall belong, and he and they is and are hereby required to quarter and billet all Soldiers and their Horses on their March in a just and equal Proportion upon the Keepers of all Houses within One Mile of the Place mentioned in any such Route, although some of such Houses may be in the adjoining County, in like Manner in every respect as if such Houses were locally situate within such Place; and all Powers, Authorities, Customs, Possessions, Forfeitures and Privileges in this Act contained, in relation to the billeting and quartering of Soldiers, shall extend and be applied to all Billets so granted, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, and in like Manner in every respect, as if such Houses were locally situate within the Place mentioned in the Route: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to authorize or empower any Constable, Tithingman, Headborough or other Person, to billet or quarter Soldiers out of the County to which they belong, or any Case in which any Constable, Tithingman or Headborough, or other Person of the adjoining County, shall be present, and undertake to billet and quarter the due Proportion of Men in such adjoining County.

L.II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor for the Time being of Ireland to deputize, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, some proper Person to sign Routes for the marching of any of His Majesty's Forces in Ireland, in the Name of such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor.

L.III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Justice or Justices of the Peace having or exercising any Military Office or Commission in any Part of the United Kingdom shall and may, during the Continuance of this Act, directly or indirectly be concerned in the quartering, billeting or appointing any Quarter for any Soldier or Soldiers in the Regiment, Troop or Company under the immediate Command or Commands of such Justice or Justices, according to the Dispositions made for quartering of any Soldier or Soldiers by virtue of this Act; but that all Warrants, Acts, Matters or Things requested or appointed by such Justice or Justices of the Peace for or concerning the same, shall be void; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

L.IV. And be it further enacted and declared, That whenever any Order shall issue for the quartering or billeting the Officers or Soldiers of His Majesty's Regiments of Foot Guards within the Cities and Liberties of Westminster, and Places adjacent, lying in the County of Middlesex, and in the County of Surrey, and in the Borough of Southwark in the said County of Surrey, the High Constables shall deliver out Precepts to the several Petty Constables, Headboroughs or Tithingmen of each Parish, Ward, Hamlet and District within their respective Divisions, to billet and quarter such Officers and Soldiers of His Majesty's Regiments of Foot Guards in such Houses only as by this Act is limited within their respective Parishes, Hamlets or Districts; and such Petty Constables, Headboroughs and Tithingmen shall, in pursuance thereof, billet and quarter every such Officer and Soldier in such Houses as subjected thereto by this Act equally and proportionally, according to the Number of such Officers and Soldiers as to be billeted and quartered, and of the Houses as subjected to receive them; and such Officers and Soldiers of the Foot Guards shall be quartered within the said City and Liberties of Westminster, and Places adjacent, lying in the said County of Middlesex (except the City of London), and in the County of Surrey, and in the said Borough of Southwark in the said County of Surrey, in the same Manner and under the same Regulations as in other Parts of England, in all Cases for which particular Provision is not made by this Act.

L.V. And for the better preventing Abuses in billeting and quartering such Officers and Soldiers in the said City and Liberties of Westminster, and Parts adjacent, lying in the said County of Middlesex, and in the said County of Surrey, and in the said Borough of Southwark in the said County of Surrey; Be it enacted, That the Petty Constables, Headboroughs, and Tithingmen of their respective Parishes, Wards, Hamlets and Districts within the same, shall at every General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said City and Liberties of Westminster, in the said County of Middlesex, and the said County of Surrey, and the said Borough of Southwark in the said County of Surrey, respectively, make and deliver to the Justices then in open Sessions assembled, upon Oath, which Oath they the said Justices are hereby authorized and required to administer, true Lists signed by them respectively of all such Houses, together with the Number of all such Persons respectively inhabiting the same, within two or three Parishes, Ward, Hamlet or District respectively, as are subjected and liable by this Act to receive such Officers and Soldiers as to be billeted above One Mile from the Place mentioned in the Route.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That the Officers, Men and Horses belonging to His Majesty's Horse or Dragoons, and also all Bit and Baggage Horses belonging to any of His Majesty's other Forces, and also the Horses belonging to Staff and Field Officers in His Majesty's Forces when upon actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by His Majesty's Regulations, shall and may be quartered and billeted in the Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling Houses and other Houses in which Officers and Soldiers are by this Act allowed to be quartered and billeted, and that they shall be received and furnished by the Owners or Occupiers of such Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling Houses and other Houses in which they are so allowed to be quartered and billeted, with Diet and Small Beer, and with Staples and Hay and Straw for such Horses, paying and allowing for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by any Act or Acts in force in that respect.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That all Horses of Officers and Men belonging to His Majesty's Horse, Dragoons, Artillery or Cavalry, and also all Bit and Baggage Horses belonging to any of His Majesty's other Forces, and also the Horses belonging to Staff and Field Officers in His Majesty's Forces when upon actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by His Majesty's Regulations, shall and may be quartered and billeted in England in the Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling Houses and other Houses in which Officers and Soldiers are by this Act allowed to be quartered and billeted, and that they shall be received and furnished by the Owners or Occupiers of such Inns, Livery Stables, Alehouses, Victualling Houses and other Houses in which they are allowed to be so quartered and billeted, with Staples, and also with Hay and Straw for such Horses, at the Rate of Eighteen Pence of Hay and Six Pence of Straw each Horse per Night, in Cases in which Hay and Straw shall not be supplied by Contract for such Horses, such Owners or Occupiers being paid for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by the Lord Lieutenant or other sufficient Authority from Time to Time, the same to be regulated by the average Rate of Contracts for Forage in Ireland.

LVIII. And Whereas Inkeepers or others on whom such Horses as before recited may have been billeted, have heretofore received an Allowance of Four Pence per Week for each such Horse for the Use of the Stable, when the Forage has been furnished by Contract: Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the said Allowance of Four Pence per Week shall continue to be paid only during the Time when such Horses shall be provided with Hay and Straw by Contract, and not by such Inkeepers or other Owners or Occupiers as aforesaid.

Men

Men and their Horses, or such Horses only, as the Case may be, to be removed and quartered upon some other Person or Persons who by this Act are liable to have Officers and Soldiers quartered and billeted upon them, who have Stables, and to order and settle a proper Allowance to be made by the Person or Persons having no Stables, in lieu of his or their quartering such Horse or Horses, or other Horses as to be removed as aforesaid; and also to order and direct that such Allowance shall be paid by the Person or Persons from whom such Men and Horses shall be removed, or to amongst the Person or Persons to whom such Men and Horses shall be so removed as aforesaid, or be applied in the furnishing of Quarters for the Reception of such Men and Horses, as the Case may require, and as such Justice shall think fit.

" LX. And Whereas great Inconveniences have arisen and may arise in such Places where Horse or Horses are or may be quartered, by the billeting of the Men and their Horses at different Houses, and often at great Distances from one another, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act: Be it therefore enacted, That in all Places where Horse or Horses shall be quartered or billeted in pursuance of this Act, for the future, the Men and their Horses shall be billeted in One and the same House (except in case of Necessity); and that in no other Case whatsoever there be less than One Man billeted where there shall be One or Two Horses, nor less than Two Men where there shall be Four Horses, and so in proportion for a greater Number; and in such Case each Man shall be billeted in near his Horse as possible.

" LXI. And Whereas some Doubts have arisen whether Commanding Officers of any Regiment, Troop or Company may exchange any Men or Horses quartered in any Town or Place, with another Man, or Horse quartered in the same Place, for the Benefit of the Service: Be it declared and enacted, That such Exchange as above mentioned may be made by such Commanding Officer respectively, provided the Number of Men and Horses do not exceed the Number at that Time billeted on such House or Houses; and the Constables, Tithingmen, Heathboroughs and other Chief Officers and Magistrates of the Cities, Towns and Villages, or other Places where any Regiment, Troop or Company shall be quartered, are hereby required to billet such Men and Horses so exchanged accordingly.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Rates to be paid into the Hands of such Constable or Petty Constable in England, Wales and Berwick-upon-Tweed, shall be according to the following Rates: that is to say, the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses shall travel; and the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Wain with Six Oxen, or Four Oxen with Two Horses, shall travel; and the Sum of Nine Pence for every Mile any Waggon with narrow Wheels, or any Cart with Four Horses respectively, or carrying not less than Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; and the Sum of Sixpence for every Mile every Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; or any further Sum not exceeding Four Pence for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or with Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel; and not exceeding Three Pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; and not exceeding Two Pence for every Mile any Cart or Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; such further Sum of Four Pence, Three Pence, or Two Pence respectively, or such Proportion of those Rates as may be deemed fair and reasonable, to be fixed and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District, assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District, the said Justices having regard to the Price of Hay and Oats, and specifying in their Order the Average Price thereof at the nearest Market Town at the Time of fixing such additional Rates: Provided always, that in Cases where the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, such further Compensation shall be made and paid in like Manner to the Owners of the said Carriages as shall be deemed reasonable by the Magistrate who granted the Warrant for impressing them, not exceeding the usual Rate and Hire of such Carriages: Provided always, that every Order of the Justices assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace, being a further Sum to be paid for the Hire of Carriages as aforesaid, in addition to the customary Rates of One Shilling, and Nine Pence, and Sixpence per Mile respectively, shall specify the Period for which the same shall be in force, and which shall not in any Case exceed Ten Days beyond the General Sessions of the Peace of such County or District next ensuing the Date of such Order; and a Copy of every such Order, signed by the Chairman or presiding Magistrate and One other Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the Quarter Sessions at which the same shall be made, shall within Three Days after the making thereof, be transmitted to the Secretary at War; and no such Order shall be valid or effectual unless a Copy thereof be so signed and transmitted as aforesaid: Provided also, that in every Case of any further Sum being allowed as aforesaid for the Hire of any Carriage, the Justice of the LXXV. And Whereas great Inconvenience often arises from there being no Justice of the Peace or Magistrate residing near to Places specified in Routes at which Soldiers are to halt, and be billeted; and quorered on the March, to issue Warrants for the providing of Carriages: For Remedy whereof be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Constable, Tithingman, at Henthborough, duly authorised for that Purpose by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Justice or Justices of the Peace residing nearest to such Place or Places, to make and give Orders for the providing of Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers on March, and to appoint Persons having Carriages within their respective Liberties or Jurisdictions to provide and furnish such Carriages, without having any special or particular Warrant for that Purpose; and all such Orders and Appointments shall be and be deemed to be as valid and effectual in all respects, and to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been made and given by the Justice or Justices of the Peace having such Authority: Provided always, that every such Justice of the Peace shall, at the Time of giving such Warrant and Authority, and hereafter once in each Year, or oftener if necessary, cause a List or List to be made out, of all Persons liable to furnish such Carriages, under such Warrant, and of the Number and Description of Carriages belonging respectively to the Persons so liable to be required to furnish Carriages for Baggage, or for Troops on the March; and such Lists shall, at all reasonable Hours, be open to the Inspection of all Persons whose Names shall be inserted therein; and all Orders and Appointments for such Carriages shall be made and taken from such Lists in regular Rotation, as far as the same can be done, so as that the providing such Carriages shall be equally distributed among the several Persons liable to furnish the same under the Provisions of this Act.

LXXVI. And Whereas, from various local Circumstances, the Rates of Carriage in Ireland cannot be regulated in the same Manner as the Rates in England; Be it therefore enacted, That the Sums to be paid in that Behalf on Ireland shall be as follows; (That is to say,) for every Hundred Weight which the Owner or Owners of any Wheel Carriage shall take as Loading on such Wheel Carriage, the Sum of One Halfpenny for every Mile or required Mile he or they shall therewith march, or according to such Rate as shall be fixed and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District, the said Justices having regard to the Price of Hay and Oats at the Time of fixing such additional Rates; and that the said Sums respectively shall be paid to such Owner or Owners respectively, or to their Carman or Druggans respectively; and that every such payment shall, if required, be made in the Presence of a Justice of the Peace, Constable, or Petty Constable.

LXXVII. And Whereas it may sometimes become necessary in Cases of Emergency to provide proper and speedy Means for the Carriage and Conveyance not only of the Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage, and other Equipage of and belonging to His Majesty's Forces in their Marches, but also to the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Women, Children, and other Persons of and belonging to such Forces: And Whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for enforcing prompt Obedience to such Orders as His Majesty or the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor in Ireland may in such Cases think fit to issue in pursuance of the Powers by Law vested in him for the Advancement of the general Good and public Welfare of the Realm: Be it therefore further enacted,

That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, or such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor or Governors in Ireland, by his or their Order, distinctly stating that such Case of Emergency doth exist, signified by the Secretary at War, or, if in Ireland, by the Chief Secretary, or in his Absence by the Under Secretary for the Civil Department, or the First Clerk in the Military Department for the Time being, to any General or Field Officer commanding His Majesty's Forces in any District or Place, or to the Agent for the Supply of Stores and Provisions at Home, or Person acting in that Capacity, to authorize such General or Field Officers or Agent as aforesaid, or Person aforesaid, by Writing under his Hand, reciting such Order of His said Majesty, or Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor aforesaid, to require all Justices of the Peace within their several Counties, Boroughs, Towns, Cities, Liberties, and Precincts in England, Ireland, Wales, and the Town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, to issue him or their Warrant or Warrants for any of the Purposes hereafter mentioned; and such Justice or Justices shall, when and as often as such Requisition in Writing as last mentioned shall be brought and shown unto any One or more of such Justices, by the Quartermaster, Adjutant, or other Officer of the Regiment, Detachment, Troop, or Company as ordered to be conveyed, or by any Officer in the Commissariat Department, to name out him or their Warrant or Warrants to the Constable or Petty Constables of the County, Division, Riding, City, Liberty, Hundred, and Precinct from, through, near, or to which such Regiment, Detachment, Troop, or Company shall be so ordered to be conveyed, requiring them to make such Provision, not only of Waggon, Wain, Cart, and Cart, kept by or belonging to any Person or Persons, and for any Use or Purpose whatsoever, but also of Saddle Horses, Coaches, Chaises, and other Four-wheeled Carriages usually let to Hire, or kept for that Purpose; and also of Hobs, Barges, and other Vessels used for the Carriage of Goods, Stones, Lime, Manure, or of Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, or any other Articles or Commodity whatsoever, upon any Canal or navigable River, with able Man and Horses to drive, navigate, and draw the same, as shall be mentioned in the said Warrant or Warrants, therein specifying the Place or Distance to which such Horses, Carriages, Boats, Barges, or other

LXXXIX. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That no Owner of any such Carriage is Inland shall be compelled or obliged to take any Loading until the same shall be first duly weighed at the Expense of the Owner or Owners of such Carriage, if he or they shall think fit, and if the same can be done in a reasonable Time without Let or Hindrance of His Majesty's Service, and if any Officer requiring such Carriage shall force or compel the Owner to take any Loading and the same shall be first duly weighed, if the same can be done in a reasonable Time as aforesaid, or shall, contrary to the Will of the Owner of such Carriage, or his Servant, put or permit any Person whatsoever to put any greater Load upon any Carriage than is hereinafter directed, either at the Time of Loading or on the March, every such Officer shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings to the Party injured, upon such Proof and in such Manner as is hereinafter appointed.

LXXX. And he it further enacted, That no Car impressed by Authority of this Act is Inland shall be liable or obliged to carry above Six Hundred Weight, and that no Wain or Cart so impressed shall be liable or obliged to carry more than Twelve Hundred Weight, and if the Owner shall consent to carry above Six Hundred Weight, or Twelve Hundred Weight respectively, on any Carriage, he shall be allowed and paid at the Rate aforesaid for every Hundred above the Weight of Six Hundred Pounds, or Twelve Hundred Pounds, put on his Carriage, according to the Notar and Description thereof; and the Owner or Owners of such Carriage or Carriages shall not be compelled or obliged to proceed with such Carriage or Carriages under the Sum of Three Pence for each Mile or reputed Mile for each Car, or Shipman a Mile for each Day, at the least, if in case he or they shall be required to carry a less LXXXI. And he is further enacted, That whenever any Troops or Companies of Soldiers shall receive Orders to march from Dublin, and that it shall be necessary to impress Carriages for that Purpose, Notice shall be given to the Lord Mayor of the City of Dublin at least Twenty four Hours before the March of such Troops or Companies of Soldiers out of the said City, or, in case of Emergency, as long before such March as the Nature of the Case shall permit, of the Number of Troops, Companies or Soldiers appointed to March; whereupon the Lord Mayor for the Time being shall summon a proportionable Number of Cabs or Drays, or either of them, at his Discretion, out of the Licensed Cabs, Drays, and other Cabs and Drays, within the County of the said City, and so from time to time the said Cabs and Drays are by Them to be employed in carrying the Baggage of such Troops or Companies, at the Prices and under the Regulations hitherto before mentioned; and it is hereby directed, that no Country Cabs, Drays or other Carriages coming to any of the Markets in Ireland, shall be detained or employed against the Will of the Owners, in carrying the Baggage of the Army, on any Pretence whatsoever.

LXXXII. And he is further enacted, That if any High Constable or Petty Constable shall wilfully neglect or refuse to execute such Warrant or Warrants of the Justices of the Peace as shall be directed unto them for providing Carriages, Horses, Batts, Barges, and other Vessels as aforesaid; or shall demand or receive, for the Use of the Owners furnishing such Waggon, Wains, Carts, Cabs, or Carriages, more than the Rates hitherto allowed respectively; or if any Person or Persons appointed by such Constable or Petty Constable to provide or furnish any Carriage, Man, Horse, Boat, Barge, or other Vessel, shall refuse or neglect to provide the same, or if such Person or Persons, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall wilfully do any Act or Thing whereby the Execution of any such Warrant shall be hindered or frustrated, every such Constable or other Person or Persons so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, nor less than Forty Shillings, to the Use of the Poor of such Parish or Parishes adjoining to the Parish where such Offence shall be committed, as shall be fixed upon by the Justice or Justices by whom such Offence shall be inquired of, heard and determined; and all and every such Offence and Offences shall and may be inquired of, heard and finally determined by any One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace dwelling in or near the Place where any such Offence shall be committed, who has hereby Power to cause the said Penalty to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owners.

LXXXIII. And he is further enacted, That the Officer commanding the Party for whom the any such Carriage or Horse shall be impressed in Ireland is hereby required, before the Owner of any Carriage or Horse in Ireland shall be compelled to take any Loading, or be forced to proceed on the March with his Carriage, to pay or cause to be paid down in Hand to the Owner of such Carriage or Horse, or to his Servant, One Third Part of the full Sum to which the Owner of such Carriage or Horse would be entitled for the March in the said Warrant directed to be made, according to the Rate so fixed for the same as aforesaid; and every such Payment shall be made, if required, in the Presence of a Justice of the Peace, Constable or Petty Constable.

LXXXIV. And Whereas, in consequence of certain Exemptions from Toll expressly allowed by several Acts for His Majesty's Forces on their March or on Duty, and for the Horses and Carriages attending them, Doubts have arisen whether in all Cases not so exempted, the Horses and Soldiers, and the Carriages and Houses belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Majesty's Service, and returning therefrom, may not be charged with the Payment of Tolls: Therefore, for obviating such Doubts, it is hereby enacted and declared, That all His Majesty's Officers and Soldiers, being in proper Staff or Regimental Uniform, and their Horses, on Duty or on their March, and all Carriages and Houses belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, and returning therefrom, or employed in His Service, when conveying the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Women, Children, or other Persons of or belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or the Arms, Cloths, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage, and other Equipage of or belonging to His Majesty's Forces on their Marches, or any Ordnance, or Barrack, or Commissariat or other Public Stores of or belonging to His Majesty, or for the Use of His Majesty's Forces, or returning therefrom, were and are and shall be exempted from Payment of any Duties and Tolls otherwise payable by virtue of any Act already made, or hereafter to be made, for Persons, Horses, or Carriages, or any Baggage of any Troops embarking at disembarking from or upon any Pier, Wharf, Quay or Landing Place, or passing Tropicale Heads or Bridges, unless by such Act it has been or shall be expressly provided that the said Officers, Soldiers, Carriages, and Horses are and shall be liable equally with others to the Duties and Tolls therein authorized to be demanded and taken: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt from the Payment of Tolls any Boats, Barges, or other Vessels employed in conveying the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Women, Children, or other Persons of or belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or the Arms, Cloths, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage, and other Equipage of or belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or any Military Stores, along any Canal; but the same shall be liable to Toll in like Manner as other Boats, Barges, and Vessels are liable thereto.

and Officers, to the great Barthen of the Townships of which they are Constables, or else the Persons providing such Carriages are grievously oppressed; For Heavily whereof, and that the said Overplus Charge may be borne by each County or Riding in the general Charge of such County or Riding, be it further enacted, That the Treasurer or Treasurers of such respective County or Riding shall, without Fee or Reward, pay unto such Constable all such Carriage such reasonable Sum or Sums of Money as by him paid or laid out for such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges, and other Vessels, over and above what was or ought to have been paid by the Officer requiring such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges, and other Vessels, out of the public Stock of such County or Riding, according to such Rates, Orders, Bails, and Directions as the Justices of the Peace in their Quarter Sessions assembled, within their respective Jurisdictions, shall from time to time during the Continuance of this Act make, direct and appoint (which Orders shall be made without Fee or Reward); and being always had to the Session of the Year, and the Length and Continues of the Ways by and through which such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges, and other Vessels are to travel and pass.

LXXXVI. And in case the public Stock of the County or Riding be not sufficient, over and above the other Purposes for which it was raised, to satisfy the extraordinary Charge of Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges, and other Vessels before mentioned, It is hereby further enacted, That the said Justices of the Peace in the General Quarter Sessions shall have Power from time to time to raise Mooneys upon the respective Counties or Ridings, in such Manner as they now raise Mooneys for County Goals and Bridges, to satisfy such extraordinary Charges of Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges, and other Vessels.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to quarter Officers and Soldiers in Scotland in such and the like Places and Houses as they might have been quartered in by the Laws in force in Scotland at the Time of its Union with England; and that the Possessors of such Houses shall only be liable to furnish the said Officers and Soldiers quartered there as by the said Laws in force at the Time of the said Union was provided; and that no Officer shall be obliged to pay for his Lodging where he shall be regularly billeted, except in the Suburbs of Edinburgh.

LXXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful to quarter or billet, in any Part of the United Kingdom, any Officer or Soldier upon or in the House or Residence of any Foreign Consul duly accredited as such; any thing in this Act, or in any Act or Acts, or Law or Customs, to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Carriages for the Service of the Forces from time to time quartered or marching in Scotland shall be provided in like Manner and at the Rates, and the Furnisher of such Carriages shall be paid, as was directed by the Law in force in Scotland at the Time of its Union with England: Provided always, that a Cart with One or more Horses, for which the Furnisher shall demand and receive the Sum of Nine Pence per Mile, shall be required to carry Fifteen Hundred Weight at the least.

XC. to their Duty before the Expiration of the Time limited by such Parolough, and Doubts have arisen whether in such Cases the Extension of a Soldier's Parolough by a Justice of the Peace be sanctioned by legal Authority, and essential for preventing such Soldier from being apprehended upon Suspicion of his having deserted his Regiment; Be it further enacted, That any Inspecting Field Officer stationed on the Recruiting Service, or any Officer of the Rank of Captain, or of superior Rank, or any Adjutant of the Regular Militia stationed within the District, or in case there be no such Officer as aforesaid within a convenient Distance, any Justice of the Peace may and is hereby authorized to grant, in Writing under his Hand, an Extension of Parolough to any Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier applying for the same on account of Sickness or other Circumstance, which shall on due Inquiry appear to render such Extension necessary; and that every such Officer or Justice of the Peace, who shall grant to any Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier an Extension of Parolough as aforesaid, shall immediately certify the same, with the Cause of so being so granted, to the Officer commanding the Corps, Depot, or Detachment to which the Man belongs, if known, if not, then to the Agent of the Regiment, in order that the Proportion of Pay, to which the Man shall be entitled, may be remitted to him according to the Rules established in that respect.

CXXVII. And he is further enacted, That such Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier, during the Period to which his Parolough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, shall not be liable to be apprehended or otherwise molested on the Ground of his having deserted the Regiment to which he shall appear by his Parolough to belong, or of criminally absconding himself from the same: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to exempt any Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier, whose Parolough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, from being proceeded against and punished according to the Provisions of this Act, should it thereafter appear that such Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier had obtained the Extension of his Parolough by false Representations made to such Officer or Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, or in applying for and obtaining the same had committed any Offence to the Prejudice of good Order and Military Discipline; provided also, that no such Parolough shall be extended by any such Officer or Justice of the Peace as aforesaid for any longer Period than One Month, unless with the Approbation of the General or other Officer commanding in the District where such Soldier shall be, or of the Officer commanding the Corps, Depot, or Detachment to which the Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier shall belong.

CXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Substances of Men on Parolough shall be issued according to the Rates which have been or shall be prescribed by His Majesty's Regulations.

CXXIX. And to prevent, as far as may be, any unjust or fraudulent Arrests that may be made upon Soldiers, whereby His Majesty and the Public may be deprived of their Services, It is hereby further enacted, That no Person who is or shall be taxed, or who shall fit and enter himself as a Volunteer in His Majesty's Service as a Soldier, shall be liable to be taken out of His Majesty's Service by any Process or Execution whatsoever, other than for some criminal Matter, unless for a real Debt, or other just Cause of Action; and unless, before taking out such Process or Execution (not being for a criminal Matter), the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein, or some other Person or Persons on his or their Behalf, shall make Affidavit before One or more Judge or Judges of the Court of Record, or other Court out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavit in such Courts, that to his or their Knowledge the original Sum justly due and owing to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs from the Defendant or Defendants, in the Action or Cause of Action on which such Process shall issue, or the original Debt for which such Execution shall be used out, amounts to the Value of Twenty Pounds at least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the same Action, or in any other Action on which the same shall be grounded; a Memorandum of which Oath shall be marked on the Back of such Process or Writ, for which Memorandum or Oath no Fee shall be taken; and if any Person shall nevertheless be arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for One or more Judge or Judges of such Court, upon Complaint thereof made by the Party himself, or by any his superior Officer, to examine into the same by the Oath of the Parties or otherwise, and by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals to discharge such Soldier so arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, without paying any Fee or Fees, upon due Proof made before him or them that such Soldier so arrested was legally enlisted as a Soldier in His Majesty's Service, and arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act: and also to award to the Party so complaining with Costs as such Judge or Judges shall think reasonable; for the Recovery whereof he shall have the like Remedy that the Person who takes out the said Execution might have had for his Costs, or the Plaintiff in the like Action might have had for the Recovery of his Cost, in case Judgment had been given for him with Costs against the Defendant in the said Action.

CXXX. And to the End that honest Creditors, who are only at the Recovery of their just Debts due to them from Persons entering into and listing in His Majesty's Service, may not be hindered from suing for the same, but on the contrary may be assisted and forwarded in their Suits; and instead of an Arrest, which may at once hurt the Service, and occasion great Expence and Delay to themselves, may be enabled to proceed in a more easy and cheap Method; Be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Notice first given in Writing of the Cause of Action to such Person or Persons so entered, or left at his or their last Place of Residence before such Listing, to file a common Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon account of any Debt whatsoever, so as to enable such Plaintiff to proceed therein to Judgment and Outlay, and Certain Officers and Justices may grant an Extension of Parolough to any Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier applying for the same on account of Sickness, &c.

CXXXI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no Soldier being arrested or confined for Debt in any Prison, Goal, or other Place, shall be entitled to any Part of his Pay from the Day of such Arrest or Confinement until the Day of his Return to the Regiment, Troop, Company, or Detachment to which he shall belong, or shall be ordered to join.

CXXXII. And be it further enacted, That every Soldier who shall be taken Prisoner by the Enemy shall forfeit all Right and Claim to Pay during the Period of his remaining a Prisoner, and until he shall again return to His Majesty's Service: Provided always, that upon the Return of every Soldier to His Majesty's Service, due Inquiry shall be made as to the Conduct of such Soldier in relation to his being made Prisoner, and during the Period of his so remaining a Prisoner, and before Return to Service, by some General or Regimental or Garrison or other Court-martial which shall be constituted under any Articles of War made by His Majesty for the Purpose of investigating such Cases; and every Soldier who shall prove to the Satisfaction of the Court, by Oath of himself or others, or in such Manner as such Court shall require, and which Oath every such Court is hereby authorized to administer, that he was fairly and unavoidably taken Prisoner in the Course of Service, without any wilful Neglect of Duty on his Part, and that he hath not served with or under or in any Manner aided or assisted the Enemy, and that he hath returned as soon as possible to His Majesty's Service, shall thereupon be entitled to receive either the Whole of any such Arrears of Pay, or a Proportion thereof, as shall be adjudged by any such Court: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Secretary at War for the Time being to order the Issue of such Arrears or of any Proportion thereof, or of any such Pay or of any Proportion thereof, as shall under all the Circumstances appear to be proper, notwithstanding any such Forfeiture, and before any such Investigation, and from thence time to time the Continuance of any such Issue of Pay, as the Case and Conduct of any such Soldier, in relation to his being captured by the Enemy, and not returning to His Majesty's Service when enabled so to do, may require; and the Orders of the Secretary at War, for the Payment of any such Arrears of Pay, shall be a good and sufficient Discharge for such Payment.

CXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Commissioners, upon making up their Accounts, and also upon returning from any Foreign Service, shall take the Oath described in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (M), which Oath, if taken in any Part of the United Kingdom, shall be taken before some Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, and if taken as Foreign Service, before the Officer commanding in Chief, or the Second in Command, or the Quartermaster or Deputy Quartermaster General, or any Assistant Quartermaster General of the Army to which he shall be attached, who shall respectively have Power to administer the same.

CXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Paymaster, or other Commissioned Officer of His Majesty's Force, or any Storekeeper or Commissary, or Deputy or Assistant Commissary, or other Person employed in the Commissary Department, or in any Manner in the Care or Distribution of any Money, Provisions, Forage, or Stores belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or for their Use, who shall embezzle or fraudulently misapply, or cause to be embezzled or fraudulently misapplied, or shall knowingly or wilfully permit or suffer any Money, Provisions, Forage, Arms, Clothing, Accoutrements, or other Military Stores, to be embezzled or fraudulently misapplied, or to be spoiled or damaged, may be tried for the same by and before a General Court-martial: and it shall be lawful for such Court-martial to adjudge any such Paymaster or other Commissioned Officer, Storekeeper, or Commissary, or Deputy or Assistant Commissary, or other Person, to be transported as a Penal for Life, or for any certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Punishment of Fine, Imprisonment, Dismissal from His Majesty's Service, and Incapacity of serving His Majesty in any Office, Civil or Military, as any such Court shall think fit, according to the Nature and Degree of the Offence; and every such Officer or Person shall, in addition to any other Punishment, make good, at his own Expense, the Loss and Damage sustained which shall have been ascertained by such Court-martial: and the Loss and Damage so ascertained aforesaid may be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in any other Courts of Law having Jurisdiction where any Person adjudged by a Court-martial to have incurred any such Penalty, or to make good any such Losses or Damages shall be resident after the said Judgment shall be confirmed and made known; and after the said Sum shall be recovered and levied, the same shall be applied and disposed of as His Majesty shall direct and appoint.

CXXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Noncommissioned Officer who shall be convicted as a General or Regimental Court-martial, of having embezzled or misapplied any Money with which he may have been entrusted for the Payment of the Men under his Command, or for colluding Men into His Majesty's Service, shall be reduced to serve as the Rank of a private Soldier, and be put under Stoppages until the Money be made good, and suffer such Corporal Punishment (not extending to Life or Limb) as the Court-martial shall think fit.

CXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and seventy seven, no Paymaster General or Paymaster of the Army, Paymaster of the Marines, Secretary at War, Commissary, Noncommissioned Paymaster of a Corps or District, or any other Officer whatsoever, or their Under Officers, shall receive any Fine or make any Deductions whatsoever out of the Pay of any Officer or Soldier in His Majesty's Army, or from their Agents, which shall grow due from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, other than the usual Deductions allowed by His Majesty's Regulations, and such other necessary Deductions.

CXXXVII. And for the Encouragement of the dye and well Clothing of the Troops, he is hereby further enacted, That the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being may, if he or they are so empowered, at the End of every Six Months, issue the Money due for the Clothing of the several Regiments, Troops, and Companies, and the Paymaster General for the Time being is hereby directed to notify the Receipt of the Money to the Secretary at War, who shall immediately grant his Warrant for the Payment of the proper Sum or Sums to such Persons or Persons only as have a regular Assignment from the Colonel or Commandant, or Person authorized by him to make such Assignment.

CXXXVIII. And he is further enacted, That if any Paymaster, Agent or Clerk of any Garrison, Regiment, Troop or Company, shall unlawfully detain or withhold, for the Space of One Month, the Pay of any Officer or Soldier (Clothes and all other just Allowances being deducted), after such Pay shall be by him or them received; or if any Officers, having received any Soldiers Pay, shall refuse to pay such Noncommissioned Officer and Soldier their respective Pay when it shall become due, according to the several Rates established by His Majesty's Orders, then upon Proof thereof before a Court-martial as aforesaid, to be for that Purpose duly held and constituted, every such Paymaster, Agent, Clerk or Officer so offending shall be discharged from his Employment, and shall forfeit to the Informer, upon Conviction before the said Court, One hundred Pounds, to be loved as aforesaid; and (a) the Informer, if a Soldier (if he demands it), shall be and is hereby discharged from any further Service; any thing to this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Secretary at War to give Orders for withholding the Pay of any Officer, Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier, for any Period during which such Officer, Noncommissioned Officer or Soldier shall be absent without Leave.

And Whereas great Inconvenience often arises from there being no Justice of the Peace or Magistrate residing near to Places specified in Routes at which Royal Marines are to halt and be billeted and quartered on the March, to issue Warrants for providing of Carriages; For Remedy whereof it is enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Constable, Tellingman, or Headborough, duly authorized for that Purpose by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Justice or Justices of the Peace residing nearest to such Place or Places, to make and give Orders for the providing of Carriages for the Baggage of Royal Marines on March, and to appoint Persons having Carriages within their respective Liberties or Jurisdictions to provide and furnish such Carriages, without having any special or particular Warrant for that Purpose; and all such Orders and Appointments shall be and be deemed to be as valid and effectual in all Respects and to all Intent and Purposes as if the same had been made and given by the Justice or Justices of the Peace having such Authority: Provided always, that every such Justice of the Peace shall, at the Time of giving such Warrant and Authority, and thereafter once in each Year, or oftener if necessary, cause a List or Lists to be made out of all Persons liable to furnish such Carriages under such Warrant, and of the Number and Description of Carriages belonging respectively to the Persons so liable to be regulated to furnish Carriages for Baggage or for Troops on the March; and such Lists shall, at all reasonable Hours, be open to the Inspection of all Persons whose Names shall be inserted therein; and all Orders and Appointments for such Carriages shall be made and taken from such Lists in regular Rotation as far as the same can be done, so as that the providing of such Carriages shall be equally distributed among the several Persons liable to furnish the same under the Provisions of this Act.

XLVII. And he it enacted, That if any High Constable or Petty Constable shall wilfully neglect or refuse to execute any such Warrant of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace as shall be directed unto such Constable or Petty Constable, for providing Carriages as aforesaid; or shall demand or receive for the Use of the Owners furnishing such Waggons, Wains, Carts, or Carriages, more than the accustomed Rates per Mile, of One Shilling, Nine Pence, or Sixpence, according to the Size of the respective Carriages as aforesaid, unless any further Sums, not exceeding the Amount herebefore specified, shall have been previously fixed and ordered by the Justices at any General Sessions of the Peace assembled as aforesaid; or if any Person or Persons appointed by such Constable or Petty Constable, to provide and furnish any Carriage and Man, shall refuse or neglect to provide the same; or any other Person or Persons whatsoever shall wilfully do any Act or Thing whereby the Execution of any such Warrant or Warrants shall be hindered or frustrated, every such Constable, or other Person or Persons so offending, shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, nor less than Forty Shillings, to the Use of the Poor of such Parish or Parishes adjoining to the Parish where any such Offence shall be committed, as shall be fixed upon by the Justice or Justices by whom such Offence shall be inquired of, heard, and determined; and all and every such Offences and Offences shall be inquired of, heard, and fully determined by Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace dwelling in or near the Place where such Offence shall be committed, who have lawfully Power to cause the said Penalty to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner.

XLVIII. And Whereas in consequence of certain Exemptions from Tolls expressly allowed by several Acts for His Majesty's Forces on their March or on Duty, and for the Horses and Carriages attending them, Doubts have arisen whether in all Cases not so exempted the Officers and Marines, and the Car-

'Hages and Horses, Boats, Barges, and other Vessels belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, and returning therefrom, may not be charged with the Payment of Tolls; Therefore, for abridging such Exemptions, it is hereby enacted and declared, That all His Majesty's Officers and Marines, being in proper Uniform, and their Horses, on Duty or on their March, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, and returning therefrom, and also all Boats, Barges, and other Vessels, belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, when carrying the Officers, Marines, Servants, Women, Children, or other Persons off or belonging to His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, or the Arms, Clothes, Apparatuses, Tents, Baggage, and other Equipage of or belonging to His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces on their March, or returning therefrom, were and are and shall be exempted from Payment of any Duties and Tolls otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already made or hereafter to be made for Persons, Horses, Carriages, or Vessels passing Turnpike Roads, Bridges, Rivers, Canals, or Locks, unless by such Act it has been or shall be expressly provided that the said Officers, Royal Marines, Carriages, Horses, and Vessels are and shall be liable equally with others to the Duties and Tolls therein authorized to be demanded and taken.

'XLIX. And Whereas the respective Sums of Money by this Act appointed to be paid to the Constables, by the Officers demanding such Carriages, may not in many Cases be sufficient to answer the Charge and Expence of providing the same, whereby the said Constables may be frequently at great Charge, over and above what is imposed by them of the said Officers, to the great Burden of the Townships in which they are respectively Constables, or else the Persons furnishing such Carriages may be grievously oppressed; To prevent which, and that such Overplus Charge may be borne by each County or Riding at the general Charge of such County or Riding, be it further enacted, That the Treasurer or Treasurers of each respective County or Riding shall, without Fee or Reward, pay unto each Constable all and every such reasonable Sum or Sums of Money as by him paid or laid out for such Carriages, over and above what was or ought to have been paid by the Marine Officer requiring such Carriages, out of the Public Stock of such County or Riding, according to such Rates, Orders, Rules, and Directions as the said Justices of the Peace in their Quarter Sessions assembled, within their respective Jurisdictions, shall from time to time, during the Continuance of this Act, make, direct, and appoint (which Orders shall be made without Fee or Reward); Regard being always had to the Season of the Year, and the Length and Condition of the Roads through which such Carriages are to travel.

I. And in case the said Public Stock of the County or Riding be not sufficient (over and above the other Purposes for which it was raised) to satisfy the extraordinary Charge of Carriages before mentioned, it is hereby further enacted, That the said Justices of the Peace in the General Quarter Sessions shall have Power from Time to Time to raise Money upon the respective Counties or Ridings, in such Manner as they now raise Money for building or repairing County Goals and Bridges, to satisfy the said extraordinary Charge of Carriages.

LI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage impressed by Authority of this Act shall be liable or obliged by virtue of this Act to carry above Twenty Hundred Weight, any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That the Carriages for the Service of the Royal Marine Forces from time to time quartered or marching in Ireland shall be provided in like Manner, at the Rates, and the Furnisher of such Carriages shall be paid as was directed by the Laws in force in Ireland at the Time of its Union with Great Britain.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Officers, Military or Civil, by this Act authorized to quarter Soldiers in any Houses hereby appointed for that Purpose, shall, at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, quarter any of the Wives, Children, Men or Maid Servants, of any Officer or Marine in any such House against the Consent of the Owners, the Party offending, if an Officer of the Royal Marines, shall, upon Complaint and Proof thereof made to the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or Judge Advocate, be ipso facto cashiered; and if a Constable, Tithingman, or other Civil Officer, he shall forfeit to the Party aggrieved Twenty Shillings, upon Complaint and Proof thereof made to the next Justice of the Peace: to be levied by Warrant of such Justice, by Distress and Sale of his Goods, rendering the Overplus to the Party, after deducting reasonable Charges in taking the same.

LV. And for the better Preservation of the Game and Fish in or near such Place where any Officers shall at any Time be quartered, be it enacted, That if from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, any Officer shall, without leave first had and obtained from the Person or Persons entitled to grant such Leave, take, kill, or destroy any Hare, Pheasant, Partridge, or any other Sort of Game, or any Fish within the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and upon Complaint thereof shall be, upon Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, convicted before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, who is and are hereby empowered and authorized to hear and determine the same; (that is to say,) every Officer so offending shall, for every such Offence,

And Whereas several Marines, who being duly entered, may afterwards desert, and be found wandering, or otherwise absconding themselves illegally from His Majesty's Service: It is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Constable, Headborough, or Tithingman of the Town or Place where any Person who may reasonably be suspected to be such a Deserter shall be found, or if no such Constable, Headborough, or Tithingman can be immediately met with, then for any Marine Officer or Marine to apprehend or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace living in or near such Town or Place, who is hereby empowered and required to examine such suspected Person; and if, by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witness or Witnesses upon Oath, or by Knowledge of such Justice of the Peace, it shall appear or be found that such suspected Person is a Marine duly entered and ought to be with the Company to which he belongs, whether such Company shall be employed on board any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or quartered on Shore, or employed on board any Transport Ship, or Merchant Ship or Vessel, or any Ship or Vessel of His Majesty not being in Commission, or any Carrier Haul or Ship, such Justice of the Peace shall, without Fee or Reward to himself or Clerk, forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Gaol of the County or Place where he shall be found, or to the House of Correction or other public Prison in such Town or Place where such Deserter shall be apprehended, and transmit an Account thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty for the Time being, with a Description of the Person of such Deserter, and the Name of the Division to which he may belong, to the End that he may be proceeded against according to Law: and the Keeper of every Gaol, House of Correction, or Prison, shall receive such Subsidence Money, for the Maintenance of such Deserter during the Time he shall continue in his Custody, as shall from time to time be decreed in that Behalf by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being, but shall not be entitled to any Fee or Reward on account of the Imprisonment of any such Deserter: any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being, if they should think fit, to order the Issue and Payment of any Arrears of Pay, or of the Surplus of such Pay, or any Portion thereof, to or on account of such Non-commissioned Officer or Marine, during or after the Expiration of his Period of Imprisonment in any Gaol or House of Correction, or other public Prison.

LVII. And for the better Encouragement of any Person or Persons to secure or apprehend such Deserter, be it further enacted, That in the Case of every Deserter apprehended in Great Britain or Ireland, the Secretary of the Admiralty, upon receiving from the Justice of the Peace, or other Civil Magistrate by whom the Deserter shall have been committed, a Report stating the Name or Names of the Person or Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and secured, which Report such Magistrate is hereby required to give, shall transmit to such Magistrate an Order upon the Paymaster of the Royal Marines for the Payment of the Sum of Twenty Shillings, to the Person or Persons so reported by the Magistrate, the Amount of which Reward shall be paid by the said Paymaster and charged against the Pay and Subsidence of every such Deserter, and shall be stopped and retained out of his Pay and Subsidence accordingly: Provided always, that this Reward shall only be given in Cases in which the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall be satisfied that such Person or Persons is or are justly entitled to the same according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall voluntarily surrender or deliver himself up as a Deserter from His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, or who, upon being apprehended for Desertion or any other Offence, shall, in the Presence of the Magistrate, confess himself to be a Deserter from such Forces, shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted, and to be a Marine, and shall be liable to serve, whether such Person shall have been ever actually enlisted as a Marine or not; and if the Person so confessing himself to be a Deserter shall be serving at the Time in the Royal Marine Forces, he shall be deemed to be and shall be dealt with as a Deserter.

LIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person shall harbour, conceal or assist any Deserter from His Majesty's Royal Marine Service in deserting or in concealing himself from such Service, knowing him to be such, the Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and upon Conviction by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said Penalty of Twenty Pounds shall be levied, by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender: One Moiety of the said Penalty to be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety to be paid to the Paymaster of the Royal Marine Forces, and shall be credited by such Paymaster in his public Accounts, and a Report of the Penalty being adjudged shall be made to the Secretary of the Admiralty by the Justice of the Peace by whom the same shall have been imposed; and in case any such Offender, who shall be convicted as aforesaid of harbouring, concealing, or assisting any such Deserter, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels wherewith Distress may be made, to the Value of the Penalty awarded against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such Case such Justice of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, commit such Offender to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Six Months.

Recruits discharged previous to March 23, 1822, before the Expiration of 24 Hours after Enlistment, not to be proceeded against as Deserters.

* LXI. And Whereas many Justices and Chief Magistrates have erroneously discharged Recruits before the Expiration of Twenty four Hours after the Time of their Enlistment: And Whereas such Recruits are in consequence liable to be treated as Deserters through such Error of the Justice or Chief Magistrate, and without any evil Intention on their own Part; Be it therefore enacted, That no such Recruit who shall have been so erroneously discharged by a Justice or Chief Magistrate previous to the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, shall be liable on that Account to be proceeded against as having absconded or deserted from His Majesty's Service.

Penalty on Persons receiving the Arms, Cloaths, &c. of Deserters, &c.

* LXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly detain, buy, or exchange, or otherwise receive any Arms, Ammunition, Cloaths, Caps, or other Furniture belonging to the King, from any Marine, or Marine Deserter, or any other Person, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, or any such Articles belonging to any Marine, or Marine Deserter, as are generally deemed Regimental Necessaries according to the Customs of the Royal Marine Corps (being provided for the Marine, and paid for by the Deductions out of his Pay), or cause the Colour of such Cloaths to be changed, every such Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds; and upon Conviction by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses before any One or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said Penalty shall be levied, by Warrant under the Hands of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattle of the Offender; One Moiety thereof to be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety to be paid to the Paymaster of the Royal Marine Forces, who shall report the same to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and certify the same in his public Accounts, and a Report of such Penalty being adjudged shall be made to the Secretary of the Admiralty by the Justices of the Peace by whom the same shall have been imposed; and in case any such Offender, who shall be so convicted, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattle whereon Distress may be made to the Value of the Penalty recovered against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such Case such Justice or Justices of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, either commit such Offender to the Common Goal, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Three Months, or cause such Offender to be publicly or privately whipped, at the Discretion of such Justice or Justices.

Furlough extended on account of Sickness, &c.

* LXIV. And Whereas Marines absent on Furlough granted them by their Commanding Officers are sometimes prevented by Sickness or other unreasonable Casualty from returning to their Duty before the Expiration of the Time limited by such Furlough; and Doubts have arisen whether in such Cases the Extension of a Marine's Furlough by a Justice of the Peace be sanctioned by legal Authority, and effectual for preventing such Marine from being apprehended upon Suspicion of his having deserted; Be it further enacted, That any Inspecting Field Officer, stationed on the Recruiting Service, or any Officer of the Rank of Captain, or of superior Rank, or any Adjutant of Local Militia within the District; or in case there be no such Officer as aforesaid within a convenient Distance, then any Justice of the Peace may and he is hereby authorized to grant in Writing under his Hand an Extension of Furlough to any Noncommissioned Officer or Marine applying for the same, on account of Sickness or other Casualty which shall on due Inquiry appear to render such Extension necessary; and that every such Officer or Justice of the Peace, who shall grant to any Noncommissioned Officer or Marine an Extension of Furlough as aforesaid, shall immediately certify the same, with the Cause of its being so granted, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and the Commandant of the Division to which the said Marine may belong; and that such Noncommissioned Officer or Marine, during the Period to which his Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, shall not be liable to be apprehended or otherwise molested on the Ground of his having deserted, or of criminally absenting himself from his Division: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to exempt any Noncommissioned Officer or Marine, whose Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, from being proceeded against and punished according to the Provisions of the Act, should it thereafter appear that such Noncommissioned Officer or Marine had obtained the Extension of his Furlough by false Representation made to such Officer or Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, or in applying for and obtaining the same, had committed any Offence to the Prejudice of good Order and Military Discipline: Provided also, that no such Furlough shall be extended by any such Officer or Justice of the Peace for any longer Period than One Month, Month, unless with the approbation of the General Officer commanding the District where such Marine shall be.

LXV. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That in all Cases in which any extension of Furlough shall be granted as aforesaid in England, and upon the Request of any such Noncommissioned Officer or Marine to whom the same shall be granted, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace granting the same, or where the same shall be granted by any such Officer as aforesaid, for any Justice of the Peace, upon the Production of a Certificate in Writing from such Officer, which he is hereby required to give, to make an Order in Writing, in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (D.), under his Hand, upon the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Township, or Place wherein such Noncommissioned Officer or Marine shall reside, requiring them to pay to such Noncommissioned Officer or Marine any Sum of Money directed in such Order, not exceeding Two Thirds of his Daily Pay; such Justice of the Peace taking particular Care to state upon the Furlough in Words, to the Amount so directed by him to be paid, and the Periods from and to which the same has been ordered to be issued, both inclusive, corroborating the Statement of the Signature, and further specifying upon the Order to the Parish Officer of the Date at the Furlough originally granted, and the Name of the Commanding Officer by whom signed; and the same as aforesaid shall be paid accordingly, upon Production and Delivery in Form of such Order, by any such Parish Officer, out of any Money in his Hands applicable for the Relief of the Poor; and the same so advanced by such Parish Officer shall, upon the Production and Delivery of such Order to the Collector of Excise of the District within which such Parish, Township, or Place shall be situated, or any Person officiating for such Collector, be repaid to such Parish Officer, to be applied to the Relief of the Poor, by such Collector of Excise or other Person, out of any Public Money in his Hands, and the same shall be allowed in his Accounts; and such Order of Justice shall be taken as Cash in the Payment of Duties of Excise received by him; and all Sums of Money so advanced out of any Duties of Excise shall be repaid to the Account of the said Duties by the Paymaster of the Royal Marines to any Person or Persons authorized by the Commissioners of Excise in England, or any Three or more of them, to draw for and receive the same. Provided always, that if any Justice of the Peace shall not think fit to make such Order for paying any such Money as aforesaid, he shall state his Reasons for such Refusal in Writing at the Back of the Furlough.

LXVI. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to make any such further or other Regulations for the advancing of any such Sums of Money in all such Cases of Extension of Furlough, and for the Reimbursement thereof, as may be from Time to Time necessary for the carrying the same into Effect, and issuing the requisite Advances of such Money, where necessary, in Great Britain or Ireland, and the due and regular Reimbursements thereof.

LXVII. And he is further enacted, That if any Person, or Persons shall in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions directly or indirectly persuade, seduce, or procure any Marine in the Service of His Majesty, His Heirs, or Successors, to desert or leave such Service, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall suffer such Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, as both, as the Court before which the Conviction may take place shall judge.

LXVIII. And, in order to prevent all Doubts, which may arise in relation to punishing Offences committed against former Acts made for the Regulation of the Royal Marine Forces while on Shore, be it enacted, That all Crimes and Offences which have been committed against any of the former Acts in that Behalf, shall and may, during the Continuance of this present Act, be inquired of, heard, tried, and determined, adjudged and punished, before and by the Just Clerks, Persons, Powers, Authorities, Ways, Means, and Methods, as the like Crimes and Offences committed against this present Act may be inquired of, heard, tried, determined, adjudged, and punished.

LXIX. Provided always, That no Person shall be liable to be tried or punished for any Offence committed against any of the said former Acts, which shall appear to have been committed more than Three Years before the ending of the Commission or Warrant for such Trial; only for the Offence of Desertion.

LXX. And to prevent, as far as may be, any unjust or fraudulent Arrests that may be made upon Marines, whereby His Majesty and the Public may be deprived of their Service, it is hereby further enacted, That no Person whatsoever who is settled or shall enter himself as a Volunteer in His Majesty's Service as a Marine, during the Continuance of this Act, shall be liable to be taken out of His Majesty's Service by any Process or Execution whatsoever, other than for some criminal Matter, unless for a real Debt, or other just Cause of Action, and unless before the taking out of such Process or Execution (not being for a criminal Matter), the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein, or some other Person or Persons on his or their Behalf, shall make Affidavit before One or more Judge or Judges of the Court of Record or other Court out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, that to his or their Knowledge the original Sum justly due and owing to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs from the Defendant or Defendants, in the Action or Cause of Action on which such Process shall issue, or the original Debt for which such Execution shall be issued out, amounts to the Value of Twenty Pounds at least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the same Action, or in any other Action on which the same shall be grounded; a Memorandum of which Oath shall be marked on the Back of such Process or Writ, for which Memorandum or Oath no Fee shall be taken; and if any Person shall nevertheless be arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for One or more Judge or Judges of such Courts, upon Complaint thereof made by the Party

Order to be made for Pay due for the Period of the extended Furlough.

His Majesty may make further Orders respecting such Payments.

Finally the commanding Marines to desert.

Offences against former Acts may be inquired of and punished as under this Act.

If committed within Three Years, except for Desertion.

No Volunteer liable to Process, unless for some criminal Matter, or unless for a Debt of 20*l*.

Party himself, or by any his superior Officer, to examine into the same by the Oath of the Parties or otherwise, and by Warrant under his or their Hands and Seals to discharge such Marine as arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, without paying any Fee or Fine, upon due Proof made before him or them, that such Marine so arrested was legally listed as a Marine in His Majesty's Service, and arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act; and also to award to the Party so complaining with Costs to such Judge or Judges shall think reasonable; for the Recovery whereof he shall have the like Remedy that the Person who takes out the said Execution might have had for his Costs, or the Plaintiff in the like Action might have had for the Recovery of his Costs, in case Judgment had been given for him with Costs against the Defendants in the said Action.

Plaintiff giving Notice may file a common Appearance and proceed to Judgment and Execution.

LXXI. And to the End that honest Creditors, who aim only at the Recovery of their just Debts due to them from Persons entered as Marines in His Majesty's Service, may not be hindered from suing for the same, but on the contrary may be enabled and forwarded in their Suits; and instead of an Arrest, which may at once hurt the Service, and occasion a great Expence and Delay to themselves, may be enabled to proceed in a more speedy and cheap Method, he is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Notice first given in Writing of the Cause of Action to such Person or Persons so entered, or left at his or their Place of Residence before such Entry, to file a common Appearance in any Action to be brought for or upon account of any Debt whatsoever, so as to enable such Plaintiff to proceed therein to Judgment and Oath, and to have an Execution thereupon, either then and against the Body or Estate of him or them so entered as aforesaid; this Act, or any Thing herein, or any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Marine while confined for Debt not to receive Pay.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That from the passing of this Act no Marine, being arrested or confined for Debt, in any Prison, Goal, or other Place, shall be entitled to any Part of his Pay from the Day of such Arrest or Confinement until the Day of his Return to the Regiment or Company to which he shall belong.

Notice to be given to the Secretary of the Admiralty of the Expiration of the Imprisonment.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Gentle to whom any Notice shall have been given that any Person in his Custody for any Offence is a Marine, and liable to serve His Majesty on the Expiration of his Imprisonment, shall give One Month's Notice, or if there shall not be sufficient Time to give One Month's Notice, then a reasonable Notice, to the Secretary of the Admiralty before the Day on which the Imprisonment of such Person will expire, according to his Commitment or Sentence, or the Period of Expiration of such Imprisonment.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall enlist into His Majesty's Marine Forces, and who shall be discovered to be incapable of active Service, by reason of any Infirmary which shall have been concealed by such Person, or not declared before the Justice of the Peace at the Time of his Attestation, and mentioned at the Foot thereof, may be transferred into any Garrison or Yarnan or Invalid Battalion, or into His Majesty's Regular Forces, and shall be entitled to receive such Proportion or Residue of Bounty only as shall be allowed by His Majesty, by any Regulation made in that Behalf, in lieu and instead of the Bounty upon which such Man shall have been enlisted; any Thing in any Act or Acts, or any Rules and Regulations relating to Soldiers or Marines, to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Duties of Postage in Great Britain and Ireland.

[28th May 1827.]

WHEREAS by the Laws now in force imposing certain Rates of Postage in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, Letters conveyed by the Post from Places in Great Britain to Places in Ireland, or from Places in Ireland to Places in Great Britain, are, by reason of the separate Rates payable in each of these Parts of the United Kingdom, charged to a higher Amount upon the whole than Letters conveyed the same Distances in Great Britain would be charged; And whereas it is expedient that such Difference of Charge, affecting exclusively the Correspondence between Great Britain and Ireland, should no longer exist; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, in lieu of all Duties of Postage granted and made payable under any Act or Acts in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, upon Letters so conveyed from either of these Parts of the United Kingdom to the other, there shall be levied and paid the like Rates of Postage, according to the Distances which such Letters are conveyed, as would be payable on the Conveyance of Letters from Place to Place in Great Britain, in addition to the separate Rates of Packet Postage now payable, and also to the several Rates of Duty payable under the Acts for building the Mewes and Conwy Bridges respectively; the whole being according to the Schedule (A) to this Act annexed.

And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, no other Packet Postage shall in any Case be demanded or paid or payable for Letters or Packets between Great Britain and Ireland, other than such as is specified and set forth in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed; and that from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand sight hundred and twenty seven, all Rates or Duties of Packet Postage between Great Britain and Ireland, under any Act or Acts passed at any Time before the passing of this Act, shall cease and determine, and shall be and are hereby repealed, and shall no longer be paid or payable; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

III. And Whereas certain Rates of Postage upon Letters and Packets conveyed by the Post to and from Places within Ireland were granted by an Act of the Fifty fourth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to repeal certain Duties upon Letters and Packets sent by the Post within Ireland, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof; and such Rates of Postage were made payable in Irish Currency: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to provide for the Amalgamation of the Currency and Moneys of Account throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, certain Provisions are made for the Payment of Sums under the Amount of Twelve Pence of the Currency of Ireland, by an equivalent Number of British Pence, Halfpence, and Farthings, some of which are not generally in Circulation in Ireland; and in order to avoid the Inconvenience of collecting the Rates of Postage in Ireland according to the Direction of the said Intercourse Act, it is expedient that such Rates of Postage should be in future charged and collected in the Currency of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland: Be it therefore enacted, That the several Rates of Postage upon Letters and Packets sent and conveyed to and from Places within Ireland, which by the said heretofore recited Act of the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty are made payable, according to the several Amounts thereof, in Irish Currency, shall from and after the Fifth Day of July, be charged, levied, collected, and paid and payable, according to the several Amounts thereof, in the Currency and lawful Money, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, according to the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General, and his Deputy and Deputies, to and for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, to demand and receive for the Conveyance of printed Votes and Proceedings in Parliament, by Packet Boat, from Great Britain and Ireland to any of His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions beyond the Seas, after the Rate of One Penny Halfpenny, and no more, for every Ounce Weight thereof; and so in proportion, in lieu of any Sum payable under any Act or Acts in force immediately before the passing of this Act, any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding, the same to be paid when the said printed Votes and Proceedings shall be put into the Post Office; provided every such printed Vote and Proceeding shall be without a Cover, or in a Cover open at the Sides; and that there be no Writing thereon other than the Superscription; and that there be no other Paper or Thing inclosed or concealed therein.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General, and his Deputy and Deputies, in His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions beyond the Seas, to receive any Votes, Proceedings, or other Public Papers, printed by Order or under the Authority of the Legislative Assemblies of any such Colonies or Possessions, for Conveyance by Packet Boats to Great Britain and Ireland; and for His Majesty's Postmaster General, and his Deputy or Deputies, in Great Britain and Ireland, to and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, to demand and receive for the Conveyance of every such Vote, Proceeding, or other printed Paper, after the Rate of One Penny Halfpenny for every Ounce Weight thereof, and so in proportion, to be paid on Delivery thereof to the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be addressed in Great Britain or Ireland; provided every such Paper shall be without a Cover, or in a Cover open at the Sides; and that there be no Writing thereon other than the Superscription; and that there be no other Paper or Thing inclosed or concealed therein.

VI. And Whereas Newspapers printed within His Majesty's Colonies and Possessions beyond the Seas, brought into Great Britain and Ireland by Ships other than Packets, and sent to the Post Office at the Port or Place at which the Letters brought by such Ships are landed, are now liable to the same Rates and Duties of Postage as Letters; and it is expedient that the Law in this respect should be amended: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven, it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General in Great Britain and Ireland, and for his Deputy and Deputies, for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, to demand and receive, for the Conveyance of every such Paper by any Ship other than a Packet, and delivered by the Commander of any such Ship at any Post Office with the Ship's Letters, the Sum of Three Pence, on the Delivery thereof to the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be addressed; provided every such Paper be sent without a Cover, or in a Cover open at the Sides; and that there be no Writing thereon other than the Superscription; and that there be no other Paper or Thing inclosed or concealed therein.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty's Postmaster General, and his Deputy or Deputies, to receive at the Port of Palmaria any Pamphlet, Magazine, Review, or other periodical Publication, for Conveyance by Packet Boat to any of His Majesty's Colonies or Possessions; and to demand, have, receive, and take for the Conveyance of every such Pamphlet, Magazine, Review, or Publication, not exceeding Six Ounces in Weight, the Sum of One Shilling, and the further Sum of Three Pence per Ounce for every Weight beyond the Weight of Six Ounces; every Fraction of an Ounce to be charged as One Ounce: Provided always, that every such Pamphlet, Magazine, Review, or Publication be sent without a Cover, or in a Cover open at the Sides; and that there be no Writing thereon

Letters with Merchants Accounts, Bills, &c. and Letters to several other Persons, written upon one and the same Piece of Paper, are liable to be rated, taxed, and paid for as so many several and distinct Letters; and it is expedient that the Laws in this respect should be altered; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, all Merchants Accounts, Bills of Exchange, Stamped Receipts, Invoices, Bills of Lading, and Proceedings at Law, written on one and the same Piece of Paper with a Letter, shall be allowed and taken without Rate in the Price of the Letter; and that any Piece or Sheet of Paper upon which Letters to several and distinct Persons shall be written, shall not be charged or chargeable with any higher Rate of Postage in Great Britain or Ireland than if One Letter only were written upon such Sheet or Piece of Paper; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLIX. And, for the Punishment of Embossments committed by Agents entrusted with Property, be it enacted, That if any Money, or Security for the Payment of Money, shall be entrusted to any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Attorney, or other Agent, with any Direction in Writing to apply such Money, or any Part thereof, or the Proceeds or any Part of the Proceeds of such Security, for any Purpose specified in such Direction, and he shall, in violation of good Faith, and contrary to the Purpose so specified, in anywise convert to his own Use or Benefit such Money, Security, or Proceeds, or any Part thereof respectively, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years nor less than Seven Years, or to suffer such other Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award; and if any Chattel or valuable Security, or any Power of Attorney for the Sale or Transfer of any Share or Interest in any Public Stock or Fund, whether of this Kingdom, or of Great Britain or of Ireland, or of any Foreign State, or in any Fund of any Body Corporate, Company, or Society, shall be entrusted to any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Attorney, or other Agent, for safe Custody, or for any special Purpose, without any Authority to sell, negotiate, transfer, or pledge, and he shall, in violation of good Faith, and contrary to the Object or Purpose for which such Chattel, Security, or Power of Attorney shall have been entrusted to him, sell, negotiate, transfer, pledge, or in any Manner convert to his own Use or Benefit such Chattel or Security, or the Proceeds of the same, or any Part thereof, or the Share or Interest in the Stock or Fund to which such Power of Attorney shall relate, or any Part thereof, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to any of the Punishments which the Court may award, as heretofore last mentioned.

I. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing heretofore contained relating to Agents shall affect any Trustee in or under any Instrument whatever, or any Mortgagee of any Property, Real or Personal, in respect of any Act done by such Trustee or Mortgagee in relation to the Property comprised in or affected by any such Trust or Mortgage; nor shall restrain any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Attorney, or other Agent, from receiving any Money which shall be or become actually due and payable upon or by virtue of any valuable Security, according to the Tenor and Effect thereof, in such Manner as he might have done if this Act had not been passed, nor from selling, transferring, or otherwise disposing of any Securities or Effects in his Possession, upon which he shall have any Lien, Claim, or Demand existing then by Law so to do, unless such Sale, Transfer, or other Disposal shall extend to a greater Number or Part of such Securities or Effects than shall be requisite for satisfying such Lien, Claim, or Demand.

LI. And be it enacted, That if any Factor or Agent entrusted for the Purpose of Sale, with any Goods or Merchandise, or entrusted with any Bill of Lading, Warehouse Keeper's or Wharfinger's Certificate, or Warrant or Order for Delivery of Goods or Merchandise, shall, for his own Benefit and in violation of good Faith, deposit or pledge any such Goods or Merchandise, or any of the said Documents, as a Security for any Money or negotiable Instrument borrowed or received by such Factor or Agent, at or before the Time of making such Deposit or Pledge, or intended to be thereafter borrowed or received, every such Offender shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years nor less than Seven Years, or to suffer such other Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award; but no such Factor or Agent shall be liable to any Prosecution for depositing or pledging any such Goods or Merchandise, or any of the said Documents, in case the same shall not be made a Security for or subject to the Payment of any greater Sum of Money than the Amount which, at the Time of such Deposit or Pledge, was justly due and owing to such Factor or Agent from his Principal, together with the Amount of any Bill or Bills of Exchange, drawn by or on account of such Principal, and accepted by such Factor or Agent.

LII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, nor any Proceeding, Conviction, or Judgment to be had or taken thereupon, against any Banker, Merchant, Broker, Factor, Attorney, or other Agent as aforesaid, shall prevent, lessen, or impeach any Remedy at Law or in Equity which any Party aggrieved by any such Offence might or would have had if this Act had not been passed; but nevertheless the Conviction of any such Offender shall not be received in Evidence in any Action at Law or Suit in Equity against him; and no Banker, Merchant, Broker, Factor, Attorney, or other Agent as aforesaid, shall be liable to be convicted by any Evidence whatever as an Offender against this Act, in respect of any Act done by him, if he shall at any Time previously to his being indicted for such Offence have declared such Act, or Oath, in consequence of any compulsory Process of any Court of Law or Equity in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding which shall have been and shall continue to be maintained by any Party aggrieved, or if he shall have declared the same in any Examination or Deposition before any Commissioners of Bankrupts.

LIV. And, with regard to Recovery of Stolen Property, be it enacted, That if any Person shall receive any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, the stealing or taking whereof shall amount to a Felony, either at Common Law, or by virtue of this Act, such Person knowing the same to have been feloniously stolen or taken, every such Receiver shall be guilty of Felony, and may be indicted and convicted either as an Accessory after the Fact, or for a substantive Felony, and in the latter Case, whether the principal Felon shall or shall not have been previously convicted, or shall or shall not be amenable to Justice; and every such Receiver, however convicted, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years nor less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Three Years, and, if a Male, to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit) in addition to such Imprisonment: Provided always, that no Person, however tried for receiving an aforesaid, shall be liable to be prosecuted a Second Year for the same Offence.

And be it enacted, That if any Person shall receive any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, knowing the same to have been feloniously or unlawfully stolen, taken, obtained, or converted, every such Person, whether charged as an Accessory after the Fact to the Felony, or with a substantive Felony, or with a Misdemeanor only, may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished in any County or Place in which he shall have or shall have had any such Property in his Possession, or in any County or Place in which the Party guilty of the principal Felony or Misdemeanor may by Law be tried, in the same Manner as such Receiver may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished in the County or Place where he actually received such Property.

LVII. And, to encourage the Prosecution of Offenders, be it enacted, That if any Person, guilty of any such Felony or Misdemeanor as aforesaid, in stealing, taking, obtaining, or converting, or in knowingly receiving any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, shall be indicted for any such Offence, by or on the behalf of the Owner of the Property, or his Executor or Administrator, and convicted thereof, in such Case the Property shall be restored to the Owner or his Representatives: and the Court, before whom any such Person shall be so convicted, shall have Power to award from time to time Writs of Restitution for the said Property, or to order the Restitution thereof in a summary Manner: Provided always, that if it shall appear before any Award or Order made that any valuable Security shall have been bond/fide paid or discharged by some Person or Body Corporate liable to the Payment thereof, or being a negotiable Instrument shall have been bond/fide taken or received by Transfer or Delivery, by some Person or Body Corporate, for a just and valuable Consideration, without any Notice, or without any reasonable Cause to suspect that the same had by any Felony or Misdemeanor been stolen, taken, obtained, or converted as aforesaid, in such Case the Court shall not award or order the Restitution of such Security.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That every Person who shall corruptly take any Money or Reward, directly or indirectly, under Pretence or upon Account of helping any Person to any Chattel, Money, valuable Security, or other Property whatsoever, which shall by any Felony or Misdemeanor have been stolen, taken, obtained, or converted as aforesaid, shall (unless he cause the Offender to be apprehended and brought to Trial for the same) be guilty of Felony, and, being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the Discretion of the Court, to be transported beyond the Seas for Life, or for any Term not less than Seven Years, or to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding Four Years, and, if a Male, to be once, twice, or thrice publicly or privately whipped (if the Court shall so think fit) in addition to such Imprisonment.

VIII. And Whereas it is expedient to provide a summary Mode of Proceeding where the Damage is of small Amount: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person to commence any Action against the Inhabitants of any Hundred or other like District, where the Damage alleged to have been sustained by reason of any of the Offences in this Act mentioned shall not exceed the Sum of Thirty Pounds, but the Party damaged shall, within Seven Days after the Commission of the Offence, give a Notice in Writing of his Claim for Compensation, according to the Form in the Schedule hereto annexed, to the High Constable or some one of the High Constables (if there be more than One) of the Hundred or other like District in which the Offence shall have been committed; and such High Constable shall, within Seven Days after the Receipt of the Notice, exhibit the same to some Two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Division in which such Hundred or District shall be situate, residing in or acting for such Hundred or District, and they shall thereupon appoint a Special Petty Session of all the Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Division, acting for such Hundred or District, to be holden within not less than Twenty nor more than Thirty Days next after the Exhibition of such Notice, for the Purpose of hearing and determining any Claim which may be then and there brought before them on account of any such Damage; and such High Constable shall, within Three Days after such Appointment, give Notice in writing to the Claimant, of the Day and Hour and Place appointed for holding such Petty Session, and shall within Two Days give the like Notice to all the Justices acting for such Hundred or District; and the Claimant is hereby required to cause a Notice in Writing, in the Form in the Schedule hereto annexed, to be placed on the Church or Chapel Door, or other conspicuous Part of the Parish, Township, or Place in which such Damage shall have been sustained, on Two Sundays preceding the Day of holding such Petty Session.

IX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices, not being less than Two, at each Petty Session or any Adjournment thereof, to hear and examine upon Oath or Affirmation the Claimant, and any of the Inhabitants of the Hundred or other like District, and those several Witnesses, concerning any such Offence, and the Damage sustained thereby; and thereupon the said Justices, or the major Part of them, if they shall find that the Claimant has sustained any Damage by reason of any such Offence, shall make an Order for Payment of the Amount of such Damage to him, together with his reasonable Costs and Charges, and also an Order for Payment of the Costs and Charges (if any) of the High Constable or Inhabitants, and shall direct such Order or Orders to the Treasurer of the County, Riding, or Division in which such Hundred or District shall be situate, who shall pay the same to the Party or Parties therein named, and shall be reimbursed for the same in the Manner heretofore directed.

pledges himself by the said Treaty for the Suppression of the said Traffic, and with a View of annihilating them more nearly to those already adopted by Great Britain, His said Majesty engages to add to them as soon as possible, with the Concurrence of the States General of the Kingdom of Sweden, and of the Sterling of the Kingdom of Norway, penal Laws according to the Spirit of the Legislation of such of the said Countries, which Laws shall visit with a Punishment proportionate to the Magnitude of the Crime, any Participation whatever by Swedish or Norwegian Subjects in the Slave Trade, and in the navigation and send these subsequent Arrangements could be put in force, the Tenth of the Royal Ordinance of the Seventh Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, of which a Copy is annexed to the said Treaty, marked with the Letter A., is formally maintained and confirmed by the said First Article (And Whereas by the Second Article of the said Treaty, in order more completely to prevent all Infringement of the Spirit of the said First Article, His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway do declare, that the Vessels belonging to their respective Subjects, which contrary to all Expectation may be found employed in the said forbidden Traffic, shall by that Act lose all Right to claim the Protection of their Flag, and His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway mutually consent, that the Ships of their royal Navies, which shall be provided with special Instructions for this Purpose as hereinafter mentioned, shall visit such Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations as may be suspected on reasonable Grounds of being concerned in the Traffic of Slaves contrary to the Provisions of the said Treaty, and in case thereof, may detain and bring away such Vessels, in order that they may be brought to Trial in the Manner stipulated in the Fourth Article of the said Treaty: And Whereas by the Third Article of the said Treaty, in order to explain the Mode of Execution of the preceding Article, it is agreed, First, that such reciprocal Right of Visit and Detention shall not be exercised within the Mediterranean Sea, nor within the European Seas lying without the Straits of Gibraltar, or the Northwest of the Thirty seventh Degree of North Latitude, and within and to the Eastward of the Meridian of Ferro; Secondly, that all Ships of the Royal Navies of the Two Nations, which shall be thereto employed to prevent the Traffic in Slaves, shall be furnished by their respective Governments with a Copy in the English, Swedish, and Norwegian Languages of the Instructions annexed to the said Treaty, and which Instructions shall be considered as an integral Part thereof, provided that they shall not be altered or modified but with the consent of His Majesty and of His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway; Thirdly, that the Names of the several Vessels furnished with such Instructions, the Force of each, and the Names of their several Commanders, shall be from time to time communicated mutually by the Power issuing the same to the other High Contracting Party; Fourthly, that the Ships of each of the Royal Navies authorised to make such Visit as aforesaid shall not exceed the Number of Twelve belonging to either of the High Contracting Parties, without the previous Consent of the other High Contracting Party; Fifthly, that the Right of Visit, such as thus reciprocally agreed on by His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, shall not be directly exercised upon Merchant Vessels sailing under the Canvas of one or more Ships of War of either His Majesty or His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway; but that if, contrary to all Expectation, the Commander of a Ship of War of either of the Two Governments employed in the Suppression of the Slave Trade, should have reasonable Grounds for suspecting that a Ship under Canvas of the other Government should in fact have on board Slaves destined for Sale, or be otherwise engaged in the Traffic of Slaves contrary to the Provisions of the said Treaty, the Commander of such Ship of War as aforesaid shall address himself to the Commander of the Convoy, in order to communicate his Suspicion, and the latter shall then proceed to visit the suspected Ship, accompanied by either the Commander of the Convoy himself, or any Officer whom the latter may designate his Representative; and it is agreed that the Commander of the Convoy shall afford all the Aid and Assistance possible to the Visit of the suspected Ship, and in case eventual Detention, according to the Spirit and true Sense of the said Treaty; And Whereas it is by the Fourth Article of the said Treaty agreed, in order to bring to Adjudication, with the least Delay and Inconvenience, the Ships of the Two Nations which may be detained for being engaged in a Traffic of Slaves, contrary to the Provisions of the said Treaty, that mixed Courts of Justice shall be formed, of an equal Number of Individuals to be named for this Purpose by their respective Sovereigns, and that One of the said Courts shall be established in One of the Possessions of His Britannic Majesty on the Coast of Africa, which shall be named at the Exchange of the Ratification of the said Treaty, and the other in the Island of Saint Bartholomew in the West Indies, belonging to His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, each of them said Majesties reserving to himself the Right of changing at his Pleasure the Place of Residence of the Court within his Dominions; and it is also thereby provided, that in the Event of the Absence, on account of Illness or any other unavoidable Cause, of One or more of the Commissioners, Judges, or Arbiters under the said Treaty, or in case of their Absence on Leave from their Government, duly notified to the Board of Commissioners sitting under the said Treaty, their Place shall be supplied in the same Manner in which, by the Ninth Article of the Regulations for the Mixed Commissions, those Vacancies are to be supplied which may occur by the Death of One or more of the Commissioners aforesaid; and it is thereby also agreed, that such Governments shall name, to sit in each of these Courts, a Judge and an Arbitrator, reserving, however, to itself, according to Circumstances and as it shall think proper, the Power either of naming for that Purpose permanent or retired Officers, or of occasionally appointing duly qualified Individuals on the Spot, who shall, when the Case occurs, assemble in the Quality of Judges and Arbiters; and it is provided, nevertheless, that after the Term fixed for the Meeting of the said Commissioners, their Proceedings in Execuation and Adjudication shall not be delayed by reason of the Absence of any Judge or Assessor to be appointed under the Provisions of the said Treaty, but that the same shall be had and determined by such Commissioners as shall or may be assembled, observing in all Things, as nearly as may be, the several Provisions of the said Treaty: And Whereas, by the Fifth Article of the said Treaty, His Majesty and His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway each engage to make good to the Subjects of the other any Losses which their respective Cruisers may cause them to experience by the signal or arbitrary Detention of their Vessels; and it is hereby declared to be understood, that the Viol and Detention shall not extend any Protest whatsoever be effected but by Ships which form a Part of the Two Royal Navies of their said Majesties, and which shall be provided with the special Instructions annexed to the said Treaty, and in pursuance to the Provisions thereof: And Whereas by the Sixth Article of the said Treaty it is agreed, that in case the Officers commanding Vessels employed for the Suppression of the Slave Trade shall desist in any respect whatever from the Stipulations of the said Treaty, the Government which shall consider itself to be wronged by such Conduct shall have the Right to demand Reparation, and in such Case the Government to which the said Commanding Officers shall belong binds itself to cause Enquiry to be made into the Subject of the Complaint, and to inflict, should such Complaint be grounded, Punishment proportioned to the Transgression which may have been committed: And Whereas by the Seventh Article of the said Treaty it is agreed, that in case of clear and undeniable Proof that during the immediate Voyage of a Vessel to visited as aforesaid, one or more Slaves shall, for the Purpose of Traffic, have been embarked on board of such Vessel, then and in such Case the Vessel in question shall be detained and brought to Trial in the Manner therein above mentioned in the Second Article of the said Treaty; and it is hereby further mutually agreed, that all Merchant Vessels which shall be found hovering or sailing near the Coasts of Africa, within One Degree to the Westward of the said Coasts, between the Twentieth Degree of North Latitude and the same Degree of South Latitude, or at anchor within any of the Rivers, Gulfs, or Creeks of those Coasts within the Limits herein above established, or at anchor in any Port within the said Limits, may be lawfully detained and brought before the established Tribunals, provided that in her Equipage there shall be found any of the Particulars hereinafter mentioned; namely, First, that her Hatchies be fitted with open Gratings instead of close Hatchies, as usual in Merchants Vessels; Secondly, that there are more Decks or Bulk Heads in her Hull, or on her Deck, than are necessary for Trading Vessels; Thirdly, that on board of her there is spare Plank either actually fitted in that Shape, or so for readily laying a Second or removable Deck, or Slave Deck; Fourthly, that on board of her there are Shackles, Bolts, and Handcuffs; Fifthly, that on board of her there is an unreasonable Quantity of Water in Casks or in Tanks, more than sufficient for the Consumption of her Crew as a Merchant Vessel; Sixthly, that on board of her there is an unreasonable Number of Water Casks or other Vessels for holding Water, unless the Master shall produce a Certificate from the Custom House from the Place from which he cleared Outwards, stating that a sufficient Security had been given by the Owners of such Vessel that such extra Quantity of Casks or other Vessels should only be used for the Reception of Palm Oil or other lawful Commerce; Seventhly, that on board of her there is a greater Quantity of Iron Tools or Kils than is requisite for the Use of the Crew as a Merchant Vessel; Eighthly, that on board of her there are Two or more Copper Bells, or even that there is One of an unreasonable Size, larger than is requisite for the Use of her Crew as a Merchant Vessel; Ninthly, that on board of her there is an unreasonable Quantity of Rice or Farina, Flour of the Maries of Brazil or Canada, or Maize, or Indian Corn, beyond any probable requisite Provision for the Use of the Crew, and such Rice, Flour, Maize, or Indian Corn not being entered on the Manifest as Part of the Cargo for Trade; and it is further mutually agreed, that the Proof of these or of any one or more of these several Indications shall be considered as prima facie Evidence of her actual Employment in the Slave Trade, and unless rebutted by satisfactory Evidence upon the Part of the Master or Owners, that such Ship or Vessel was otherwise legally employed at the Time of her Detention and Capture, the Ship or Vessel shall thereupon be condemned and declared lawful Prize: And Whereas it is also in the Eighth Article of the said Treaty agreed, that the Acts or Instruments of which Mention is made in the said Treaty, and which being annexed thereto form an integral Part of it, are the following; the Proclamation of His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, which forbids now to his Subjects the Slave Trade; an Extract of a Royal Norwegian Proclamation, dated the Sixteenth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and sixty two, Paragraphs the First and Sixth; Instructions for the Vessels of the Royal Navies of Great Britain, and of Sweden and Norway, employed in preventing the Slave Trade; and Regulation for the Mixed Courts of Justice: And Whereas the said Proclamation, to which the Words " Annex A." are prefixed, is as follows:

[Ed July 1827.]

WHEREAS several Acts were passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for consolidating the Laws of the Customs, and it has been found necessary to make certain Alterations and Amendments therein: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, the several Enactments hereinafter contained shall come into and be and continue in full Force and Operation for all the Purposes mentioned therein.

II. And Whereas by One of the said Acts, intitled An Act for the General Regulation of the Customs, it is enacted, that no Entry, nor any Warrant for the taking of any Goods out of any Warehouse, shall be valid, unless made in Manner therein directed; and that any Goods taken or delivered out of any Warehouse by virtue of any Entry not so made shall be deemed to be Goods taken without due Entry thereat; and Doubts have arisen whether such Goods can be deemed to be taken or delivered until they be actually removed away from the Warehouse, and out of the Custody of the Officers of the Customs; be it therefore enacted, That when Demand shall have been made for the Delivery or for any Order for the Delivery of any Goods in virtue of any such Entry, such Goods shall be deemed to have been taken and delivered within the Meaning of the said Act.

also as much of the said Act as prohibits the Importation of Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Lamb, Mutton, or Pork, from the Isle of Man, being the Produce of that Island, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

IV. And Whereas another Act was passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the Prevention of Smuggling; and it is expedient to alter and amend the same in Manner hereinafter provided: Be it therefore enacted, That if any Person shall be proceeded against under the said last in part recited Act, or this or any other Act now in force or hereafter to be made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, and the Information exhibited against such Person shall charge him as being a Seaman, and fit and able to serve His Majesty in His Naval Service, and it shall appear to the Justices before whom such Person is brought, that he is guilty of the Offence with which he is charged, but that he is not fit for His Majesty's Naval Service, that then and in such Case it shall be lawful for such Justices, and they are hereby required to award such Information accordingly, and to commit such Person in the Custody of One hundred Pounds, or if proceeded against as not being a Seaman or fit for His Majesty's Naval Service.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Spirits or Tobacco which shall be found being removed or carried without a legal Permit for the same, shall be deemed to be Spirits or Tobacco respectively unshipped without Payment of Duty, unless the Party in whose Possession the same shall be found or seized shall prove to the contrary.

VI. And be it further enacted and declared, That in all Cases where any Penalty, the Amount of which is at any Time to be determined by the Value of any Goods, is directed to be paid for under any Law now in force or hereafter to be made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, such Value shall be deemed and taken to be according to the Rate and Price which Goods of the like Sort or Description, and of the best Quality, bear at such Time in London, and upon which the Duties due upon Importation have been paid.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Information is exhibited for any Offences against the said last-mentioned Act, or this or any other Act now in force or hereafter to be made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, such Information may be received by One Justice of the Peace, and such Justice may issue a Subpoena for the Appearance of the Party against whom such Information is exhibited before any Two Justices of the Peace; and after the Hearing and Conviction before any Two Justices of the Peace, any One of the said Justices, or any other Justice of the Peace, may issue his Warrant to enforce the Conviction, and such Warrant shall and may be executed in any County in England; and where, in default of Payment of the Penalty sought for, the Imprisonment of the Party takes place for the Space of Six Months, such Time of Imprisonment shall be reckoned from the Time of the Commencement of such Imprisonment.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Information shall be exhibited before a Justice or Justices of the Peace, for any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture under any Act now in force or hereafter to be made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, and it is necessary to summon the Party against whom such Information is exhibited, it shall be deemed a good and sufficient Service of such Summons if the same be left at the House or usual Place of Residence of the said Party, and directed to such Party.

IX. And Whereas by the said Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, Foreign Vessels laden with Spirits in Casks of less Content than Forty Gallons, or with certain other Goods, in which there shall be a certain Proportion of British Subjects, are liable to Seizure if found within certain Distances of the Coast: And Whereas it frequently happens, that during Clime, and previously to such Vessels being taken Possession of, certain Persons, who are believed to be British Subjects, but of which there is no legal Proof, quit such Vessels, leaving only Foreigners on board, by which the Law is evaded, and the Vessels and Cargoes escape Confiscation, although the Carpent may be evidently intended to be smuggled into the United Kingdom: Be it therefore enacted, That in all such Cases where any Person shall escape from any such Vessel or Boat before Possession is taken of it, every such Person so escaping shall be deemed to be a Subject of His Majesty, within the Meaning of the said last-mentioned Act, unless it shall be proved to the contrary.

X. And Whereas in Proceedings under the said last-mentioned Act Difficulties frequently arise in procuring the Attendance of Two Magistrates who have Jurisdiction in the County where the Offence has been committed, and Delay is thereby occasioned: Be it enacted, That where the Attendance of Two Magistrates having Jurisdiction in the County where the Offence is committed cannot be conveniently obtained, it shall be lawful for a Magistrate of any adjoining County, with One Magistrate of the County in which the Offence was committed, to hear and determine any Information exhibited before them, and to have the same Powers and Authorities in all respects as in any Proceeding had under the said last-mentioned or any other Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, as if they were both Magistrates for the County in which the Offence was committed.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures which may be recovered before any Justice of the Peace under the said last-mentioned Act, or this or any other Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, on any Prosecution by Order of the Commissioners of Customs, shall be paid to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and on any Prosecution by Order of the Commissioners of Excise shall be paid to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Excise, Excise, or to the Person appointed by them respectively to receive the same; and such Penalties and Forfeitures shall be applied by the said Commissioners respectively in such Manner as the Law directs.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Goods which are subject to any Duty or Restriction in respect of Importation shall be found on Examination of any Package to be concealed in double Sides or false Bottoms, or in any other secret or disguised Place in such Package, or among any other Things in such Package, that then and in such Case not only all such Goods, but also all other Goods found in the said Package, shall be forfeited.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, by an Order made for that Purpose under their Hands, to direct any Vessel, Boat, or Goods seized under any Act made for the Prevention of Smuggling, or relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, or to the Trade or Navigation of the United Kingdom, or of any of His Majesty's Possessions Abroad, to be delivered to the Owner or Owners, whether the same shall have been seized in the United Kingdom or Abroad, and whether the Commission has taken place or not, upon such Conditions as they may deem expedient, and which shall be mentioned in the said Order; any thing in any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That where any Person shall be arrested by virtue of a Warrant issued under the said Act for the Prevention of Smuggling, and shall enter into a Recognizance, and appear in the said Court at the Return of the said Recognizance, but shall not afterwards plead to the Information or Indictment, it shall and may be lawful for the Prosecutor of such Information or Indictment to cause a Copy thereof to be delivered to such Person, or to his or her Attorney or Agent, or to be left at his or her last Place of Abode, with a Notice thereon endorsed, that unless such Person shall, within Eight Days from the Time of such Delivery of a Copy of the Information or Indictment as aforesaid, cause a Plea to be entered in the said Court to such Information or Indictment, that the Prosecutor of such Information or Indictment will enter into a Plea of Not Guilty on his or her Behalf; and that upon Affidavit being made and filed in the Court, of the Delivery of a Copy of such Information or Indictment, with such Notice endorsed thereon as aforesaid, to such Person, or to his or her Attorney or Agent, or at his or her last Place of Abode, as the Case may be, it shall be lawful for the Prosecutor of such Information or Indictment to cause the Plea of Not Guilty to be entered in the said Court to such Information or Indictment for such Person, and such Proceedings shall be had thereupon as if the Defendant in such Information or Indictment had pleaded according to the usual Course of the said Court.

XV. And for the Purpose of enabling the Mayor and Corporation and Citizens of the City of London, and their Successors, to ascertain and collect the Amount of the Dues payable to them upon the several Articles hereinafter mentioned, imported Consigns into the Port of London, be it enacted, That if all or any of the Goods of the Description hereinafter mentioned, (that is to say) Fruits of Butter, Tens of Cheese, Fish, Eggs, Salt, Frail, Hozes casible, and Oases, brought Consigns into the Port of the said City, and which are liable to the said Dues, shall be landed or unshipped at or in the said Port, before a proper Certificate of the Payment of the said Dues shall have been obtained, such Goods shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of His Majesty's Customs empowered to seize any Goods landed without due Entry thereof; and such Forfeiture may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea, or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in the Name of the Chamberlain of the said City, on behalf of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens.

XVI. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the Encouragement of British Shipping and Navigation, it is enacted, that certain Sorts of Goods therein enumerated, being the Produce of Europe, shall not be imported into the United Kingdom to be used therein, except in British Ships, or in Ships of the Country of which the Goods are the Produce, or in Ships of the Country from which the Goods are imported; and it is expedient to discontinue such Restrictions in respect of some of the Sorts of Goods as aforesaid, and to extend such Restriction to certain other Sorts of Goods hereinafter enumerated; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight, so much of the said Act as restricts, in manner before mentioned, the Importations of Bees, Pitch, Vinegar, Sugar, Potashes, and Salt, being the Produce of Europe, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and that in lieu thereof the several Sorts of Goods hereinafter enumerated, (that is to say) Wax, Shonae, Modiers, Madder Hozes, Barilla, Brimstone, Bark of Oak, Cork, Oranges, Lemons, Livers, Baye Seed, and Cloves Seed, being the Produce of Europe, shall not be imported into the United Kingdom to be used therein, except in British Ships, or in Ships of the Country of which the Goods are the Produce, or in Ships of the Country from which the Goods are imported; and that this Restriction shall be complied with and enforced in like Manner as if the same were contained in the said Act.

XVII. And for the greater Encouragement of Navigation, be it further enacted, That no higher Duty of Stamps than Two Shillings shall be charged upon the Indenture of any Apprentice bound to serve at Sea in the Merchant Service, nor upon any Memorandum or Agreement made between the Master and Mariners of any Ship or Vessel, or Wages or Service on any Voyage in such Ship or Vessel; any thing in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVIII. And Whereas by another Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the regulation of British Vessels, it is enacted, that no Ship or Vessel shall be registered at Malta or Gibraltar, except such as are wholly of the Built of those Places respectively; and that such Ships shall not be registered elsewhere, and that such Ships or Vessels shall not be entitled to the Privileges and Advantages of British Ships in any Trade between the United Kingdom

XXXV. And Whereas it is expedient to appoint the Ports of Kington and Montreal in the Canadas to be Warehousing Ports for the warehousing of Goods in certain Cases; Be it therefore enacted, That the said Ports of Kington and Montreal shall be and are hereby appointed Warehousing Ports for the warehousing of Goods brought by Land or Inland Navigation, and of Goods imported by Sea in British Ships, in like Manner as if the said Ports had been so appointed by the said last-mentioned Act.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted and declared, That nothing contained in an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to alter and amend the several Laws relating to the Customs, did, does, or shall extend to repeal or in any way alter or affect an Act passed in the Thirty seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for regulating the Trade to be carried on with the British Possessions in India by Ships of Nations in Amity with His Majesty, nor to revoke, alter, or affect any Regulations formed under the Authority of that Act, which were in Force at the Time of the Commencement of the said Act of the last Session of Parliament.

XI. And Whereas by the said Act for regulating the Trade of the British Possessions Abroad, certain Persons therein described, Subjects of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, being Proprietors of Estates, or Holders of Mortgage of Estates in the Colonies of Bourbon and Reunions and of Senegal, are discriminated and deemed to be Dutch Proprietors in the said Colonies, for certain Purposes in the said Act mentioned; and it is expedient to permit any of such Persons, at their Option, to relinquish such Character of Dutch Proprietors: Be it therefore enacted, That if any such Person shall make and sign a Declaration in Writing, attested by Two credible Witnesses, setting forth that he is desirous and has elected not to be deemed to be a Dutch Proprietor within the Meaning of the said Act, in respect of any such Estate or Mortgage to be mentioned and named in such Declaration, and shall cause such Declaration to be delivered to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, such Person shall thenceforth be no longer nor again deemed a Dutch Proprietor within the Meaning of the said Act, in respect of the Estate or Mortgage so mentioned in such Declaration as aforesaid, and such Declaration shall have effect in respect of any Goods the Produce of any such Estate of which such Person, so far as relates to those Goods, was a Dutch Proprietor, although such Goods may have been exported from the Colony before the delivering of such Declaration as aforesaid.

XII. And Whereas by the said Act for regulating the Trade of the British Possessions Abroad it is amongst other Things recited, that by the Law of Navigation Foreign Ships are permitted to import into any of the British Possessions Abroad, from the Countries to which they belong, Goods the Produce of those Countries, and to export Goods from such Possessions, to be carried to any Foreign Country; and that it is expedient that such Permission should be subject to certain Conditions; and it is therefore by the said Act enacted, that the Privileges thereby granted to Foreign Ships shall be limited to the Ships of those Countries which, having Colonial Possessions, shall grant the like Privileges of Trading with those Possessions to British Ships, or which, not having Colonial Possessions, shall place the Commerce and Navigation of this Country, and of its Possessions Abroad, upon the Footing of the most favoured Nation, unless His Majesty by His Order in Council shall in any Case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such Privileges to the Ships of any Foreign Country, although the Conditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled by such Foreign Country: And Whereas, unless some Period be limited for the Fulfilment by Foreign Countries of the Conditions mentioned and referred to in the said recited Act, the Trade and Navigation of the United Kingdom and of the British Possessions Abroad cannot be regulated by fixed and certain Rules, but will continue subject to Changes dependent upon the Laws from time to time made in such Foreign Countries: Be it therefore enacted, That no Foreign Country shall hereafter be deemed to have fulfilled the Conditions so prescribed as aforesaid in and by the said Act, as to be entitled to the Privileges therein mentioned, unless such Foreign Country had in all respects fulfilled those Conditions within Twelve Months next after the passing of the said Act, that is to say, on or before the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty six.

XIII. And for the better ascertaining what particular Foreign Countries are permitted by Law to exercise and enjoy the said Privileges, be it further enacted, That no Foreign Country shall hereafter be deemed to have fulfilled the before-mentioned Conditions, or to be entitled to the Privileges aforesaid, unless and until His Majesty shall, by some Order or Order to be by Him made by the Advice of His Privy Council, have declared that such Foreign Country hath so fulfilled the said Conditions, and is entitled to the said Privileges.

XIV. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That nothing herein contained extends or shall be construed to extend to make void or annul any Order or Orders in Council heretofore issued under the Authority or in pursuance of the said recited Act, or to take away or abridge the Powers vested in His Majesty in and by the said Act, or any of those Powers; any thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Quarter Sessions, Cities, &c. divided into Districts for holding Petty Sessions.

II. And Whereas in certain Parts of Ireland it may not be practicable to procure the constant Attendance of a sufficient Number of Justices of the Peace to constitute Petty Sessions: Be it enacted, That in case the Justices of the Peace of any County as assembled shall be of Opinion that any Part of such County ought not to be included in any District for the Purpose of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices to make an Order to that effect, and then and in such Case the Provisions of this Act shall not extend to such Part or Parts of any County as shall in such Order be declared not to be included in any District.

to be vested in His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to His and their own Use, discharged from the situated in the Barons of One thousand six hundred and forty one, and One thousand six hundred that all Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Regulations, and Chances contained in the said recited Acts, or any or either of them, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament of Great Britain or Ireland, or of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in force at the Time of the Decease of His late Majesty, as to His Majesty's Hereditary Rents, Duties, Payments, and Revenues in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, and also as to the Hereditary Revenues of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and the levying and collecting and Payment or keeping separate Accounts thereof, or computing the Amount of any such Rents, Duties, Payments, or Revenues respectively, be used and applied for the levying, collecting, paying, or keeping separate Accounts of, or computing the Amount of all or any of such Rents, Duties, Payments, and Revenues, as fully and effectually, in all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Powers, Authorities, Provisions, Regulations, and Chances were severally and separately re-enacted in the Body of and made Part of that Act: and it was also enacted, that the Produce of all the said Hereditary Revenues in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, which were by an Act of the Parliament of Ireland of the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, therein recited, carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and all Arrears thereof which had accrued since the Decease be expedient to place the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland under the Management of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, appointed and to be venues of the Crown and Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks, and Chases, with such Powers and Privileges as are hereinafter contained; and it will also be expedient to render the said Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland inalienable, except under the Powers and Privileges hereinafter contained; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Commencement of this Act the said recited Act of the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty (except so far as regards the Payment and Recovery of Rents) which have been purchased under the Provisions thereof for the Use of the Purchaser, and the Redemption of Rents and the Discharge of Lands where Rents have been purchased under the Provisions thereof for the Purpose, of being extinguished, and also except the Provision contained in the said Act for investing any Sums of Money paid under the said Act in the Purchase of Stocks, Funds, or Annuities, transmissible at the Bank of Ireland, in the Name of the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury) shall be and the same hereby repealed.

Enacted Act
 30 G. 4. repealed, except as regards Payment of Rents, &c.

Repeal of the said Act not to necessary; Act repealed, not provision any Statute, &c.

The other repealed Acts, as far as they are necessary to the Act, to be repealed.

II. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That the Repeal of the said Act shall not operate to revive any Act thereby repealed, nor shall the same prejudice any Sale, Composition, Mortgage, or other Act, Matter, or Thing made or done under and by virtue of that Act; but the same shall remain as good, valid, and effectual, and all the Provisions in the said Act contained, with respect to Rents or other Property to be purchased under the said Act, shall, so far as regards any Rents or other Property already sold or contracted for under the Provisions of the said Act, remain and be of as full Force and Virtue as if the said Act had not been repealed.

III. And be it further enacted, That all the said several other recited Acts not heretofore altogether repealed shall be and the same are hereby, from and after the Commencement of this Act, so far as they may respectively interfere with or be repugnant to the Powers and Provisions of this Act, but not further or otherwise, repealed.

IV. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, intitled An Act for making the Collectors Receipts for Quit Rent, Crown Rent, and other Rents due to the Crown, full and legal Discharges for the same; and for limiting their Fees thereon; after reciting that the Rents due to the Crown were levied by Collectors appointed in the several Districts of that Kingdom, which was principally intended for the Ease of the Subject, by saving them the Trouble, Danger, and Expence of sending their Money to Dublin, to be there paid into the Treasury; and that Doubts had arisen whether the Acquittances given by such Collectors were sufficient Discharges to the Persons paying the said Rents; it was enacted, that the Acquittances already given by the Collectors duly appointed to receive the same Rents, as also all Acquittances that thereafter should be given by any such Collector during the Time the said Collectors were or should be so employed, should be good and valid in Law to all Intents and Purposes, against His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and that all such Acquittances so given or thereafter to be given should be as good and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as an Exchequer Acquittance duly passed and entered in the several Offices of the Exchequer. And it was further enacted, that the said Collectors might demand and receive the respective Fees thereafter mentioned, and no more or other Fee; that was to say, for every Acquittance they should give for any of the said Rents for any Sum above Five Shillings and not exceeding Twenty Shillings, the Sum of Sixpence and no more; and for every Sum above Twenty Shillings and not exceeding Five Pounds, the Sum of One Shilling and no more; and for every Sum above Five Pounds and not exceeding Fifteen Pounds, the Sum of One Shilling and Sixpence and no more; and for every Sum above Fifteen Pounds, the Sum or Fee of Two Shillings; and in no Case to receive any more for any One Acquittance than Two Shillings; and after reciting that several Persons stood charged with several Rents for several Parcels of their Lands and Tenements, the same being granted under several and distinct Rents to themselves or others under whom they claimed, for which formerly several Acquittances used to be given, though paid at the same Time and by the same Person, for which said several Acquittances distinct Fees had been paid, it was further enacted, that where One Person stood charged with the Payment of several and distinct Sums in respect of several Parcels of their Lands and Tenements, or where the same was in charge in the Name of other Persons not in Possession of such Tenements, the several Collectors should, on Receipt of the said Rents or any Part thereof, give to the Person so in Possession as aforesaid, and on paying the same, One Acquittance for what he should so pay, which Acquittance should distinctly mention as well the Lands and Tenements as the Rent so paid, and for what Tale the same was so paid, and by whom, for which One Acquittance the said Collectors should require no other or greater Fee than as aforesaid; and after reciting that the several Acquittances to be made and given pursuant to that Act might be lost or mislaid, to the Prejudice of the Person therein concerned, for Prevention thereof it was further enacted, that the Collectors should every Year prepare a Book, wherein they should enter all the Receipts or Acquittances by them given for all and every the aforesaid Rents, under their Hands, and to the Presence of the Party paying the same, (so which Receipt the said Parties, or any other on their Behalf, might set their Names); for every which Entry the said Collectors might demand and receive Two Pence near and above the Fees aforesaid; which Book the said Collectors, and every of them respectively, should yearly before the ending of their Accounts return, under their Hands and on their Oaths, into the Office of the Auditor General, where the same should remain and be kept, not only as a Charge on such Collectors respectively, but also as a Discharge to the Subject for all Sums thereby appearing to be paid as aforesaid. And whereas it is desirable that the Provisions herebefore contained, with respect to the Fees on the Receipt of Quit Rents, Crown Rents, Compositions, and other Rents payable to the Crown, should be substituted in lieu of the Provisions of the said Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Third: Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, the said Act (but without Prejudice to the Validity of Receipts heretofore given in pursuance thereof) shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Receiver or Collector of any Quit Rents, Crown Rents, Compositions, or other Rents due and payable to the Crown in Ireland, shall, upon Payment of the same or any Part thereof, give and deliver to the Person paying the same a full and clear Receipt or Acquittance for what he shall receive under his Hand, wherein he shall state the Sum so by him received, and for what Tale Rent, and for what Land or Hereditaments, and on what Account the same shall be paid to him.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Receivers and Collectors, and every of them, shall and may demand and receive, from the Persons from whom they shall receive the said Quit Rents, Crown Rents, § IV. A repealed, but without Prejudice to Receipts given in pursuance thereof.

Receivers of Quit Rents to give Receipts stating the Particulars.

From the said Persons by Receivers and Collectors.

Rents, Compositions, or other Rents, the respective Rents hereinafter mentioned, and no more or other Fee: (that is to say,) for every Acquittance that shall give for every Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings, the Sum of Sixpence and no more; for every Sum above Twenty Shillings and not exceeding Five Pounds, the Sum of One Shilling and no more; for every Sum above Five Pounds and not exceeding Fifteen Pounds, the Sum of One Shilling and Sixpence and no more; and for every Sum above Fifteen Pounds, the Sum of Two Shillings and no more; and where any such Acquittance shall be for Half a Year's Rent only, a Fee shall be paid equal only to Half the Fee which would have been payable for the whole Year's Rent.

VII. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That where One Person shall stand chargeable, in respect of different Lands or Hereditaments held by him, with the Payment of several and distinct Sums, or where more than One Year's Rent shall be paid at the same Time, and One Acquittance only shall be given for what shall be so paid, the said Receiver or Collectors may demand and receive a distinct Fee, according to the Rate aforesaid, for each of the Rents, and for each Year's or Half Year's Rent, which shall be so paid, and which shall be included in such Acquittances.

VIII. And Whereas the several Acquittances to be made and given pursuant to this Act may be lost or mislaid; for preventing any Prejudice thereby to the Person concerned, be it further enacted, That every such Receiver and Collector as aforesaid shall every Year prepare a Book wherein he shall enter all the Receipts or Acquittances by him given for all and every the aforesaid Rents, under his Hand, and in the Presence of the Parties paying the same respectively; (which Receipts the said Parties, or any other on their Behalf, may set their Names to; for every which Entry the said Receiver and Collectors shall and may demand and receive Two Pence (over and above the Fees aforesaid); and the said Receiver and Collectors respectively shall yearly return the said Books, under their Hands and on their Oaths, into the Office of Public Records in Ireland wherein the Two-penny Books of the Collection of Crown Rents heretofore returned, pursuant to the Provision in that Behalf of the said recited Act of the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, now or shall be deposited, and the same shall there remain and be kept, not only as a Charge on such Receivers respectively, but also as a Discharge to the Subject for all Sums thereby appearing to be paid as aforesaid.

IX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act all the Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland shall be inalienable, except in the Manner and under the Powers and Provisions hereinafter contained; and the same (with the Exceptions hereinafter particularly mentioned) shall be under the exclusive Management of the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, appointed and to be appointed under and by virtue of the said Act of the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for uniting the Office of Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of the Crown and Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, Parks, and Chases; subject only to the Control of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in manner hereinafter mentioned.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared, That the Title of any Purchaser or Purchasers of any Rent or other Hereditaments shall not be impeached by reason of the Non-transmission of any such Duplicate Conveyance as aforesaid, but such Transmission shall be considered merely as a Duty imposed on the said Commissioners, and not as a Duty to be performed or interfered in by the Purchasers of any Rents or other Hereditaments under the Provisions of this Act.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Rent or other Rent shall be purchased under the Authority of this Act, it shall be expressed in the Conveyance thereof whether the same is to become extinguished, or whether the same is to be held and enjoyed by the Purchaser or his Trustee or Trustees, and in all Cases where the Conveyance shall express that the Rent is to become extinguished, the same shall, immediately upon the Execution of the Conveyance, cease and become extinguished; and in all Cases where the Conveyance shall express that the Rent is to be held and enjoyed by the Purchaser or his Trustee or Trustees, the same shall, from and after the Execution of the Conveyance, become and remain vested in the Purchaser or Purchasers, or his, her, or their Trustee or Trustees, and his, her, or their Heirs or Successors and Assigns, and shall be paid and payable to them by Two equal Half-yearly Payments on the Twenty-fifth Day of March and Twenty-fifth Day of September in every Year: and every such Purchaser or Trustee, his or her Heirs and Assigns, shall have the like Remedy for recovering such Rents by Distress, and by impounding and selling the same, as in case of Rent Charges.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Rent shall be purchased under the Authority of this Act, which shall not be extinguished, but shall abide for the Benefit of the Purchaser, the Fees on such Rent herebefore made payable by the Persons subject to the same shall be considered for all Purposes as Part of the Rent so purchased, and shall be payable to the Purchaser, his Heirs or Successors and Assigns, together with the Rent, in the same Manner as the said Fees would have been payable, under the Provisions hereinafter contained, to the Collector or Receivers of such Rents if the same had not been sold: and the Purchaser of every such Rent, his Heirs or Successors and Assigns, shall have the same Remedies for recovering the said Fees as are herebefore given for recovering the Rent itself.

XIX. And Whereas in many Grants of Lands by Letters Patent from the Ancestors or Predecessors of His Majesty, reserving Rents, several Demarcations or Parcels of Land are granted by the same Grant, and in some of such Grants the several Proprietors of Rent for the several Demarcations or Parcels of Land, or for some of those, are set forth, and in others of such Grants the several Proprietors of Rent for the several Demarcations or Parcels of Land are not set forth, but the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, in all Cases where Lands or Hereditaments comprised in One Grant from the Crown, and jointly liable to One Rent, have become subdivided amongst several Proprietors, exercises a Jurisdiction of apportioning such Rent as between the several Proprietors of the Lands and Hereditaments subject thereto, with a Reservation of the Right of the Crown: And Whereas, for the Encouragement of Persons to purchase, under the Provisions of this Act, the Rents charged on their Lands and Hereditaments, it will be desirable that any Persons entitled or interested in any Lands or Hereditaments liable jointly with other Lands or Hereditaments to a gross Rent, which shall have been so apportioned by the original Grant, or by the Court of Exchequer, should be enabled, by the Purchase of that Portion of the gross Rent which by such Apportionment shall have been made specifically payable in respect of their Lands and Hereditaments, entirely to extinguish such their Lands and Hereditaments, as well from the Portion of Rent so specifically made payable in respect thereof as also from all Liability in respect of the other Portions of the gross Rent charged on the Lands comprised in the same Grant: Be it therefore further enacted, That whenever any Person or Persons, or Body, or Bodies Politic or Corporate, shall purchase under this Act, in order that the same may become extinguished, any Portion of any Rent which shall have been so apportioned either by the original Grant or by the Court of Exchequer as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Lands and Hereditaments upon which the Portion of Rent so purchased shall have been so specifically charged shall be and the same are hereby extinguished and discharged, not only from the Portion of Rent so purchased, but also of and from all other Portions of the Rent reserved by the same Grant; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless, that any such Extinction and Discharge shall not affect the Right of the Crown to recover, against the Remainder of the Lands and Hereditaments comprised in the same Grant, the remaining Portions of the Rent thereby reserved.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Committee or Committee of any Lunatic, or the Guardian or Guardians of any Infant, or the Trustee or Trustees of any Feme Covert, or other Person under any Incapacity, which Lunatic, Infant, Feme Covert, or other incapacitated Person may be interested in any Hereditaments upon which any Rent or Rents hereby authorized to be sold may be charged, to contract for and purchase such Rent or Rents on behalf of such Lunatic, Infant, Feme Covert, or other incapacitated Person, and to supply any Moneys in their or his Hands belonging to such Lunatic, Infant, Feme Covert, or other incapacitated Person for that Purpose; and this Act, without any further Authority, except in the Instance hereinafter mentioned, shall be a sufficient Indemnity to every such Committee, Guardian, and Trustee, for the Application of the Money applied in such Purchase, and in Payment of the Expenses attending the same: Provided nevertheless, that if the Purchase Money shall exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, the same shall not be so applied without the Sanction and Authority of the High Court of Chancery in Ireland (which Sanction and Authority

XXI. And Whereas Cases may occur in which it may be desirable that the Rents hereby authorized to be sold should be purchased, in order that the same may become extinguished; but by reason of the Hereditaments out of which the same are issuing not being vested in any Person for so Estate of Fee Simple in Possession, or by reason of some Incapacity in the Owner thereof, special Provisions may be expedient for facilitating such Purchases: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Tenant for Life or Lives, Tenant in Tail, or Tenant for any determinable Fee of any Hereditaments out of or upon which any Rent or Rents hereby authorized to be sold may be issuing or charged, and for the Comptroller or Commissioners of any Lands, the Guardian or Guardians of any Infant, or the Trustee or Trustees of any Feme Covert, or other Person under any Incapacity, or the Husband of any Feme Covert, which Lands, Infant, Feme Covert, or other incapacitated Person shall be Owner of or beneficially interested in any such Hereditaments as aforesaid for Life, in Tail, or in Fee, either absolute or determinable, by any Deed or Deeds in Writing, to raise any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purpose of purchasing such Rent or Rents and paying the Expenses attending such Purchase, by Mortgage of the said Hereditaments, either in Fee Simple or for any Term of Years, or by Sale of a sufficient Part thereof, or otherwise to charge and incumber the same with such Sum or Sums, and the interest thereof, in such Manner as he or they shall think proper, and every such Sale, Mortgage, Charge, and Incumbrance shall be good and valid in the Law against all Tenants in Remainder or Reversion, and all other Persons interested in or entitled to the Premises so sold, mortgaged, charged, or encumbered, and all other Persons entitled to or claiming any Debt, Charge, or Incumbrance affecting the Premises so sold, mortgaged, charged, or encumbered, and such Mortgage, Charge, and Incumbrances shall have Priority to all other Debts, Charges, and Incumbrances on the same Premises: Provided nevertheless, that if such Purchase Money shall exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, the same shall not be so raised without the Sanction of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, which Sanction the said Court is hereby authorized to grant upon Petition, in a summary Way or otherwise, as to the same Court shall seem fit; any thing heretofore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXII. And Whereas under the Acts heretofore in force for the Sale and Disposal of the Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland, various Sales have taken Place of Lands, Rents, and other Hereditaments, the Property of the Crown, but Doubts have been entertained as to the Validity of some of such Sales, and of the Conveyances, Certificates, or other Instruments executed and given in pursuance thereof, either from some Defects in the Acts under which the same were respectively made, or from the Provisions of the said Acts not being properly complied with, or from other Causes, and in some Cases by reason of such Sales having been made after the Act under which the same purported to be made had been repealed: And Whereas it will be absolutely that Power should be given to the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues (with the Sanction of the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury) to modify the said Sales, where the same shall have been bona fide made and the Purchase Money actually paid: Be it therefore further enacted, That in every Case where any Lands, Rents, or other Hereditaments, Part of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland, shall have been sold under the Authority or supposed Authority of any of the Acts heretofore recited, or of any other Act heretofore passed relating to the Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland, and the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, shall be satisfied that the Contract for Sale was entered into bona fide by the Parties thereto, and upon the Supposition that such Sale could be legally effected by the Party by whom the same purported to be made, and shall also be satisfied that the Purchase Money contracted to be paid was actually and bona fide paid by the Purchaser or on his Behalf (as to which Matters a Recital to their Effect in the Deed or Instrument concerning any such Sale shall, so far as regards any Person or Persons claiming under such Deed or Instrument, be sufficient Evidence), then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being, or any Two of them, with the Sanction of the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three of them, to be testified by any Warranty under their Hands, on the Application and at the Costs and Charges of such Purchaser, his or her Heirs or Assigns, or of any Party or Parties claiming under such Purchase, to confirm the same, and for that Purpose to convey for a nominal Consideration the Lands, Rents, or other Hereditaments so purchased or intended so to be to such Purchaser or other Party or Parties, or to he, she, or they shall appoint; and every such Conveyance may be either in the Form set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed for the Conveyance on any Sale, or in such other Form as the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any Two of them, shall think proper; and in any such Conveyance it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the Sanction of the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, for the Time being, to insert a Declaration that the same shall take effect as from any Time anterior to the actual Execution thereof, and every such Conveyance shall be valid and effectual for the Purpose of vesting the Lands, Rents, or other Hereditaments to which the same shall relate in the Party or Parties to whom the said Lands, Rents, or other Hereditaments shall purport to be conveyed, and for such Intests respectively as shall by such Conveyance purport to be given; and every Conveyance in which any such Declaration as aforesaid shall be inserted shall relate back to the Time mentioned in such Declaration, and shall be deemed and construed, to all Intents and Purposes, to have been actually executed executed at that Time, and shall take effect accordingly: Provided always, that no Party to whom any Sale shall be so confirmed by the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any Two of them as aforesaid, shall be bound to enquire whether they were duly authorized to confirm the same by the said Lord High Treasurer or Comptrollers of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them as aforesaid, or not, but such Confirmation shall, so far as the Party to whom the same shall be made, and all Persons claiming under him or them, shall be concerned, be valid and effectual, although the Commissioners by whom the same shall have been made shall not have been duly authorized as aforesaid to make it.

Purchasers are bound to enquire as to the powers of the Treasury having been obtained.

XXIII. And Whereas it might be expedient and tend to the Improvement of the said Possessions of the Crown in Ireland, if the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues were authorized and empowered to purchase any Lease or Lease subdividing of or in any Houses, Buildings, Lands, or other Hereditaments belonging to the Crown in Ireland, where such Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments shall be wanted with a view to the making Alterations or Improvements therein, or in any other Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments belonging to the Crown adjacent or contiguous thereto, or for any other Purpose: He is therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or any Two of them, to contract and agree with any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons, holding any Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments belonging to the Crown, for any Term or Terms of Years, under any Letters Patent, Lease, Demise, or Grant from His Majesty, or any of His Royal Highnesses, for the Purchase of any such Term, or the Surrender of any such Terms, and such Letters Patent, Lease, or Grant, whether the Possession of the Houses, Buildings, Lands, or Hereditaments comprised in any such Term or Terms, Letters Patent, Lease, or Grant, be wanted with a view to the making any Alteration or Improvement therein, or in any other Houses, Buildings, or Hereditaments belonging to the Crown, near or contiguous thereto, or for any other Purpose, if the same shall by the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, be deemed eligible to be bought up for any such Purpose.

Commissioners empowered to buy in Crown Lands.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Bodies Politic or Corporate, Ecclesiastical or Civil, possessed of or entitled to any Lease or Lease of any Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues may think it desirable to purchase under the Powers heretofore given, and for all Executors or Trustees, and for all Tenants for any Interest short of an absolute Interest in such Lease and Leases, and for the Guardians, Trustees, or Committees of such of the Persons interested in any such Leases as shall be Persons Convict, Infants, Lunatics, Idiots, or Persons beyond the Seas, or otherwise incapable of acting for themselves, to contract and agree with the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being, or any Two of them, for the Sale of any such Lease or Leases as aforesaid, and to assign, transfer, or surrender the same accordingly, and every such Contract, Agreement, Assignment, Transfer, and Surrender shall be as good, valid, and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same were made by a Person absolutely entitled to the Lease or Leases thereby contracted or agreed for, or assigned, transferred, or surrendered, and under no such Disability or Incapacity as aforesaid.

Incapacitated Persons empowered to sell.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any such Lease shall be held by or in Trust for any Person or Persons under any Disability or Incapacity as aforesaid, or having only a partial or limited Interest therein or Power over the same, the Value thereof and of the Premises therein comprised shall in every such Case be ascertained by Two able practical Surveyors of Houses or Land, One of whom shall be nominated by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for the Time being, and the other by the Body Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons contracting or agreeing to sell the same: and if such Two Surveyors shall not agree in the Valuation thereof, then by such Third Surveyor of Houses or Land as the Two so appointed shall for that Purpose nominate; and each of the said Two Surveyors (if they shall agree in and make their Valuation, or if not, then the Surveyor so to be nominated by them as aforesaid) shall annex to their or his Survey, Estimate, or Valuation, when completed, an Oath (or, being One of the People called Quakers, an Affirmation) to be subscribed by him, and taken before and certified by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate for any County, City, or Liberty within the United Kingdom, who is hereby authorized to administer an Oath or Affirmation in that Behalf; the Form whereof shall be as follows:

22 G. 2. c. 40.

And Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled 'An Act for the more effectual Prevention of frivolous and vexatious Suits, and to authorize the Impignoring of Pledges upon Executions in certain Cases, it was enacted, that from and after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and three no Person should be arrested or held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out of any Court within those Parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England and Ireland, for a Cause of Action not originally amounting to such Sum for which such Person was by the Laws then in being liable to be arrested and held to Bail, over and above and exclusive of any Costs, Charges, and Expenses that may have been incurred, recovered, or become chargeable in or about the suing for or recovering the same or any Part thereof: And Whereas it is expedient to extend and render more effectual the Provisions of the said recited Acts; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twenty seven no Person shall be held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out of any Court, where the Cause of Action shall not have originally amounted to the Sum of Twenty Pounds or upwards, over and above and exclusive of any Costs, Charges, and Expenses that may have been incurred, recovered, or become chargeable in or about the suing for or recovering the same or any Part thereof; and that in all Cases where the Cause of Action shall not amount to Twenty Pounds or upwards, exclusive of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses as aforesaid, and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall proceed by the way of Process against the Person, he, she, or they shall not arrest or cause to be arrested the Body of the Defendant or Defendants, but shall serve him, her, or them personally, within the Jurisdiction of the Court, with a Copy of the Process and Proceedings thereupon, in such Manner as by the said Act of the Twelfth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First is provided in Cases where the Cause of Action shall not amount to Ten Pounds or upwards in any superior Court, or to Forty Shillings or upwards in any inferior Court; and that where the Cause of Action in any Court shall not amount to the Sum of Twenty Pounds, exclusive of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses as aforesaid, no Special Writ or Writs, nor any Process specially therein expressing the Cause or Causes of Action, shall from and after the said First Day of August be used forth or issued from any Court, in order to compel any Person or Persons to appear thereon in such Court; and all Proceedings and Judgments that shall from and after the said First Day of August be had on any such Writ or Process shall be and are hereby declared to be void and of no Effect.

No Person to be held to Special Bail where the Cause of Action is less than 20*l*.

II. And Whereas by the said Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, Persons arrested upon Habeas Corpus were enabled, in lieu of giving Bail to the Sheriff, to deposit in the Hands of the Sheriff the Sum intimated upon the Writ, together with Ten Pounds in addition to such Sum, to answer the Costs which might accrue up to the Time of the

Return

Return of the Writ, and also such further Sum, if any, as should have been paid for the King's Fine upon any Original Writ, and should thereupon be discharged from such Arrest: And Whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said Act, and to enable Persons who have been arrested to deposit or pay into the Court in which the Writ shall be returnable the Sum indured upon the Writ, together with an additional Sum as a Security for Costs, to abide the Event of the Suit, instead of putting in and perfecting Bail in the said Action; Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases in which any Defendant shall have been discharged from Arrest upon making such Deposit as is required by the said recited Act, and the Sum so deposited shall have been paid into Court, it shall be lawful for such Defendant, instead of putting in and perfecting Special Bail in the Action, according to the Course and Practice of the Court, to allow the Sum so deposited with the Sheriff, and by him paid into Court as aforesaid, together with the additional Sum of Ten Pounds, to be paid into Court by such Defendant as a further Security for the Costs of the Action, to remain in the Court to abide the Event of the Suit; and in all Cases where any Defendant shall have been arrested and shall have given Bail to the Sheriff, or shall have been arrested and remain in Custody, it shall be lawful for such last-mentioned Defendant, instead of putting in and perfecting Special Bail, to deposit and pay into the said Court the Sum indured upon the Writ, together with the Amount of the King's Fine, if any, upon the Original Writ, and the further Sum of Twenty Pounds as a Security for the Costs of the Action, there to remain to abide the Event of the Suit, and thereupon the said Defendant may, and he is hereby required to enter a Common Appearance, or file Common Bail in the Action, within such Time as he would have been required to have put in and perfected Special Bail in the Action according to the Course of the said Court, or in default thereof the Plaintiff in the Action is hereby empowered to enter such Common Appearance or file Common Bail for the said Defendant, and the Cause may proceed as if the Defendant had put in and perfected Special Bail; and in case Judgment in the said Action shall be given for the Plaintiff, he shall be entitled, by Order of the Court, upon Motion made for that Purpose, to receive the said Money so remaining in, or so deposited or paid into the Court as aforesaid, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to satisfy the Sum recovered by the Judgment, and the Costs of the Application; and if Judgment be given in the said Action for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff discontinue his Suit, or be otherwise barred, or in case the Sum deposited and paid into Court be more than sufficient to satisfy the Plaintiff, the said Money so deposited or paid into Court, or so much thereof as shall remain, shall by Order of the Court, upon Motion to be made for that Purpose, be repaid to such Defendant.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Defendant who hath made his Election to make such Deposit and Payment as aforesaid, at any Time in the Progress of the Cause before Issues joined in Law or Fact, or final or interlocutory Judgment signed, to recover the same out of Court, by Order of the said Court, upon putting in and perfecting Special Bail in the Cause, and Payment of such Costs to the Plaintiff as the said Court shall direct.

IV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Defendant who shall have put in and perfected Special Bail in any Cause, upon Notice to the Court in which the Action is brought, if the Court shall so think fit, to deposit and pay into Court the Sum which would have been deposited and paid in case the Defendant had originally elected as to do, together with such further Sum, to answer the Costs, as the Court may direct, to abide the Event of the said Suit, and to be disposed of in manner aforesaid; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Court to direct a Common Appearance to be entered, or Common Bail to be filed for the Defendant, and an Exonerator to be entered upon the Bail Piece in the said Cause.

V. And Whereas the Provisions in the said Acts authorizing Plaintiffs, in default of Appearance of Defendants, to enter a Common Appearance, or file Common Bail, as therein directed, are not deemed to extend to Proceedings by Original and other Writs whereupon no Capias is issued, and it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said former Acts to such Proceedings; Be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall proceed by Original or other Writ, and Summons or Attachment thereupon, or by Subpoena and Attachment thereupon, in any Action at Law against any Person or Persons not having Privilege of Parliament, no Writ of Distingas shall issue for Default of Appearance, but the Defendant or Defendants shall be served personally with the Summons or Attachment, at the Foot of which shall be written a Notice, informing the Defendant or Defendants of the Intent and Meaning of such Service, to the Effect following:

[naming the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs], to the Intent that you may appear by your Attorney in His Majesty's Court of _____ at Westminster, at the Return hereof, being the _____ Day of _____, in order to your Defence in this Action, and take notice, that in default of your Appearance the said A. B. will cause an Appearance to be entered for you, and proceed therein as if you had yourself appeared by your Attorney.

But in case it shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Court, or, in the Vacation, of any Judge of the Court from which such Process shall issue, or into which the same shall be returnable, that the Defendant or Defendants could not be personally served with such Summons or Attachment, and that such Process had been duly executed at the Dwelling House or Place of Abode of such Defendant or Defendants, and that it shall and may be lawful for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, by Leave of the Court, or Order of such Judge as aforesaid, to sue out a Writ of Distingas to compel the Appearance of such Defendant or Defendants; and that at the Time of the Execution of such Writ of Distingas there shall Defendant may receive such Deposit and Payment out of Court, upon perfecting Special Bail. Defendant, after perfecting Bail, may make Deposit and Payment, and file Common Bail.
